2 ACCIDENTS, THEFTS KEEP POLICE BUSY

Investigation of two auto accidents, various thefts, and an intrusion kept borough police busy over the weekend.

Damage totaled $250 when two autos collided at the intersection of W. Middle St. and Ridge Ave. Saturday afternoon at 2:30 o'clock.

According to the borough officers, Earl L. Topper, 38, of 142 Main St., McSherrystown, was driving a station wagon west on W. Middle St., and stopped preparatory to making a left turn into Ridge Ave.

At the same moment Alice R. Reider, 31, driving west in a car owned by her husband, Ray R. Reider, Gettysburg R. 2, noted that her large purse was about to fall from the seat to the floor of her car. She glanced down to pull the purse back, she told police, and when she looked up again she found the station wagon ahead of her had stopped, and it was too late for her to prevent a collision. Damage was estimated at $175 to the front of the Reider car and $75 to the rear of the Topper station wagon.

CAR IS STOLEN
The other accident occurred Sunday morning at 1:05 at the intersection of S. Washington St. and W. Middle St. According to police, Floyd Simmons, York Springs, driving a taxi owned by Dr. John Knox, York St. south on S. Washington St. stopped for the red blinker light at the intersection and then pulled out into the path of a pickup truck being operated west on W. Middle St. by Carl L. Jones, Smithburg R. 3. Damage was estimated at $20 to the truck and $90 to the car. Police said a charge of failing to yield the right of way will be brought against the cab driver.

A divorce was granted to Francis Knox, 318 E. Middle St., from Josephine Louise (Mallette) Knox, Gettysburg R. 3. The couple wed December 23, 1957, at Emmitsburg.

A discontinuance was approved upon payment of costs in the divorce suit of David R. Gebhart from Sarah Elizabeth (Miller) Gebhart. According to the discontinuance notice, the couple "amicably adjusted their differences on or about November 1."

Young Vietnamese Generals Stage Bloodless Purge In Saigon; U.S. Not Pleased

By MALCOLM W. BROWNE
SAIGON, South Viet Nam (AP) — The future of South Viet Nam's government and the war against the Viet Cong have been thrown into doubt by a weekend political purge by young Vietnamese generals.

The "Young Turks" dissolved the High National Council and arrested most of its nine members, plus more than 20 other leading politicians.

U.S. military and diplomatic officers made no official statement on the crisis — the country's sixth government upheaval in less than 14 months — but American displeasure was evident.

U. S. NOT PLEASED
"This power play did not seem called for," said one U.S. official, "and basically we have to regard these generals as rebels against the duly constituted government."

OBSERVE DAY OF PRAYER SUNDAY

Catholics will mark next Sunday as a day of prayer for victims of religious persecution.

Rev. Fr. Joseph P. Kealy, in Sunday's announcements, asked the members of St. Francis Xavier here to visit the church at specified times between 1 p.m. and Sunday and 7 o'clock next Sunday evening.

Members of the church were asked to receive Holy Communion next Sunday "on behalf of your suffering brothers in other lands. The Most Blessed Sacrament will be exposed after the noon Mass next Sunday and the day of public exposition will close with a Holy Hour at 7 o'clock."

Parishioners were asked to attend the Holy Hour and to visit the church to spend a half hour each in prayer during the day.

LOCAL MAN'S SON SUICIDE IN VIRGINIA

John Joseph Jaskiewicz Jr., 18-year-old son of John J. Jaskiewicz, Gettysburg R. 5, killed himself with a shot from a .22 caliber rifle Saturday evening in his apartment in Charlottesville, Va., after a former girl friend had refused on the telephone to "come back to him."

A friend of Jaskiewicz, Douglas Ladd, who lives nearby and was with Jaskiewicz in the latter's room during the telephone conversation, told police that, after the girl who had broken their informal engagement had refused to renew their friendship, Jaskiewicz handed the telephone to Ladd and walked to the rear of the room.

As Ladd hung up the phone, there was a shot and Jaskiewicz died instantly from a bullet wound which the police said was self-inflicted.

SERVICES PLANNED

The dead boy was listed as a dishwasher.

Surviving in addition to his father are the boy's mother, Mrs. Mildred Adkins Zubriske, Meridian, Miss.; a grandmother, Mrs. B. Adkins, Charlottesville; two brothers, Robert Bruce, Charlottesville, and Walter Stephen, Meridian, and two sisters, Nina Marie and Felicia Zubriske, both of Meridian.

Jaskiewicz was a member of the Holy Catholic Church of Charlottesville. There will be a rosary service at 8 p.m. Tuesday and burial will be made in Oakwood Cemetery at Charlottesville Wednesday morning at 10 o'clock.

Ike Says FDR's Peace Terms Prolonged War

WASHINGTON (AP) — Gen. Dwight D. Eisenhower says President Franklin D. Roosevelt's unconditional surrender policy in World War II was a mistake that may have cost lives and prolonged the war.

Eisenhower, former president and commander of the Allied forces that defeated the Germans in the West, made his comment in an interview with the Washington Post.

The unconditional surrender slogan was first voiced by Roosevelt at a news conference in Casablanca, Morocco, Jan. 24, 1943, at the end of a 10-day conference with British Prime Minister Winston Churchill.

"ALL OVER IN JAN."
The main thing wrong with it, Eisenhower said, was it seemed to be directed against the German warlords.

"Germany was defeated after the Battle of the Bulge," Eisenhower said. "By Jan. 16, 1945, it was all over and anyone with sense knew it was over."

"But then there was this statement that President Roosevelt made about unconditional surrender in 1943. This certainly had some influence. The whole (Continued on Page 7)

Full Probe Of Safety Bureau Has Been Ordered

HARRISBURG (AP) — A full internal investigation has been ordered by Gov. Scranton into the keeping of records in the State Traffic Safety Bureau.

The investigation was a direct repercussion over the discovery last week that some 39 traffic violation reports were missing from Bureau files. Two high officials in the Bureau were forced to resign because of the incident.

MUSSELMAN FARM WORKERS AT YULE PARTY

The annual Christmas banquet for approximately 350 farm employees and their families representing the farm units of the Musselman Division, Pet Milk Co., was held Saturday evening in the Biglerville plant cafeteria. Additional guests included the families of the Wolff Farm Supply Company staff.

A turkey dinner, prepared by the cafeteria staff, under the direction of Preston Zerbe, manager, was served. Assisting in the table service for the children were: Mrs. Clair Winand, Mrs. G. A. Slaybaugh Jr., Mrs. Clyde Baker, Mrs. Fred Baltzley, Mrs. Thomas Cleaver, Mrs. Guy Rafensperger, Mrs. Nelson Kane, Mrs. Donald Horst and the Misses Ellen and Lynn Humphries, Patricia Kane and Leslie Slaybaugh.

Entertainment included folk singing by "Corky" Quinn and Nancy Strouss, Hanover. Donald E. Horst showed colored slides of his recent trip to Germany. Season's greetings were extended to the group by President J. A. Hauser. The final event on the program was the presentation of gifts to all children present.

The committee in charge of arrangements was headed by Clair E. Winand, farm superintendent, assisted by Fred L. Baltzley, Glenn Slaybaugh Jr. and Clyde Baker.

ROADS SLIPPERY
Lightner said: "There was quite a bit of ice. The roadway was ice cold and, when the snow came, it stayed. Cars passed and the snow was compacted and became slippery."

A great deal of antiskid chemicals was placed on the highways at spots, Lightner said, to meet the situation. The highway crews found only a few spots where it was necessary to plow snow off the highways.

While the state highway workers were busy handling the snow problem, youngsters throughout the county tried out sleds early Sunday morning and most found the snow insufficient for such use.

A few ingenious youngsters, however, secured large cardboard boxes which seemed to provide enough surface on the light snow to slide on steep areas.

The snow even brought out a few horse owners who were reminded to give their horses some practice in sleigh pulling—in anticipation of the day when sleighs will be usable on the roads.

County To Make Business Changes

A number of changes will be made by the Adams County commissioners as of January 1, following a custom of rotating the county's business among various firms.

Chief Commissioners' Clerk M. Hardy Nichols said today that among the "switches" will be the following for one-year periods: The Pensumpro Co. will provide milk to the county home and jail, succeeding Mason-Dixon Dairies, and the Adams County National Bank will become the depository of county funds, succeeding the Gettysburg National.

For six-month periods: Laundry will transfer from Associated Services to Steele's, while Hennig's Bakery, Gettysburg, and Hartzell's Bakery, Biglerville, will switch deliveries, with the one taking the jail and the other the county home. Under the rotating plan, each bakery gets the county home business for six months, and then the county jail business for six months, rotating the places between the two concerns.

Through the courtesy of the borough council free parking to day through Thursday, December 24, has been accorded to all shoppers in Gettysburg. It was ordered by the council at the request of the Retail Merchants Association.

This morning Mares Sherman, president of the association, issued this appeal:

"Council has authorized free parking today through Thursday to all shoppers in Gettysburg. This applies to 'shoppers' only. Local businessmen, professional men, clerks and others not directly identified as shoppers are requested not to take advantage of the council's generosity and to refrain from using the zones for their personal or business affairs. The free metered areas are for shoppers and it will be appreciated if others will abide by the directive."

Sherman also requested that merchants, who are placing Christmas decorations over the meters during these four days, remove said decorations when they close their stores Xmas Eve.

House Trailer Is Destroyed By Fire
A house trailer on the Robert Lemmon property, Round Hill, along the Hanover-Carlisle highway, was destroyed by fire shortly after midnight Saturday. Damage was estimated at $1,500.

New Oxford firemen, who responded with two pumps, blamed the fire on faulty wiring in a device used to prevent the water pipes from freezing. The trailer was not occupied.

CAR HITS SQUARE
State police are continuing their investigation of another accident in the center plot of the New Oxford Square.

Sunday night an auto smashed into the square ripping out one guard post, and tearing down Christmas decorations. The vehicle apparently went about 15 feet into the square, according to the tire marks.

30 More White Hostages Are Reported Murdered By Red Rebels In Congo
LEOPOLDVILLE, the Congo (AP) — Thirty more white hostages, all missionaries and their families, are believed to have been killed by rebels in the northeastern Congo, refugees arriving here said Sunday.

The missing include an American, Mary Baker of Richmond, Va. She was last reported at Banalia, 82 miles north of Stanleyville, on Nov. 20.

Fifteen other missionaries were missing from Banalia and 14 more from Bafwasende, 150 miles northeast of Stanleyville.

HUSBAND MISSING
Fourteen refugees freed at Bafwasende by white mercenary troops said they were not sure the other hostages in the town had been killed.

"We heard one volley of rifle fire," said Dolena Burk of Calgary, Alta., "but later the simbas (rebel soldiers) promised us they had not been killed."

Mrs. Burk's husband is among the missing.

Other refugees said the mercenaries told them they found traces of a recent massacre at Banalia. Children's clothes, the habits of a nun and a priest and splashes of blood were discovered on the slope leading up to Banalia's ferryboat, the soldiers told them.

11 NUNS SURVIVE
Besides Mrs. Burk, the survivors included 11 Italian Roman Catholic nuns and two British women missionaries. They were rescued Saturday.

Mrs. Burk said the simbas became furious after central government planes raided Bafwasende. All the white hostages, who had been crammed for three days in a single room, were taken out to be shot, she said.

"They separated us and the nuns from the others," she said. Eight Dutch Catholic priests, her husband, a British family and an Australian and a British woman were in the other group.

ALCLOR PLANT BEING BLAMED IN AUTO CRASH

"Smoke or dust" emitting from the Hercules Alclor Chemical Co. plant at Seven Stars was blamed for an auto accident on the Lincoln Highway in that village October 17, 1963, by Rebecca Stull, Orrtanna R. 1, according to papers filed in the prothonotary's office.

The Stull complaint joins the chemical plant as an additional defendant in a trespass action originally brought against Mrs. Stull.

The original trespass action was brought by Marie Stauffer, Chambersburg; Lois Gelsinger, Chambersburg, and Thomas Redinger, 146 Chambersburg St., against Rebecca Stull. Each of the complainants alleged injuries suffered in the accident when the Stull station wagon smashed into the rear of the Stauffer auto in Seven Stars.

LIST 8 INJURIES
Marie Stauffer suffered multiple contusions and muscle strains of the neck, back, both knees and left ankle and an aggravation of arthritis of the cervical spine. She lost four weeks work, and in the suit asks "in excess of $2,000 but less than $5,000."

Lois Gelsinger, a passenger in the Stauffer car had injuries of the neck, contusions of the shoulder, and abdominal wall, was off work seven weeks and asks damages of "more than $1,000 and less than $5,000."

Reddinger, also a passenger in the Stauffer coupe, had whiplash injuries and contusions of the head, and lost time from work. He asks damages of "more than $500 but less than $1,000."

BLAMES DUST
Papers filed by Attorney Donald G. Oyler for Rebecca Stull, listing the chemical plant as an additional defendant, avers that "said collision was caused by failure of the additional defendant to exercise reasonable care; which failure consists of locating its plant in close proximity to the highway and permitting dust or smoke to cover the highway."

The Stull complaint alleges that the Hercules Alclor plant is "solely liable" for the damages in the accident. According to the complaint, the Stauffer car was operated "into such dust, smoke, or smog" and brought to a stop. The Stull station wagon also going east on the Lincoln Highway, slowed when it entered the "smoke or dust" covering the road according to the papers filed in the prothonotary's office.

Service Thursday At Idavills UB
A Christmas Eve program will be presented at the Idaville United Brethren Church at 7 o'clock.

There will be recitations and exercises by children of the church. The choir will sing several anthems and Christmas carols and the story of Christmas will be read. "O Holy Night" will be sung by Mrs. Jacob Stover.

"Let me say this," said the children's aunt, Liz Schaefer, 25. "We're prepared for Christmas. I hope and pray it is a merry Christmas for them."

Liz — the kids call her Buff — and her mother, Kate Schaefer, 67, have been caring for six of the girls since June 1961, when their father, George Schaefer, was killed in an auto accident.

Three months earlier, their mother had died shortly after giving birth to Georgette.

Georgette lives with an aunt and uncle in Philadelphia.

The girls are growing up nicely, said Liz.

"The sad part is over," she added. "Write something happy and gay because that's the way they are and that's the way I want people to see them."

25 DEATHS ARE ATTRIBUTED TO COLD WEATHER

By THE ASSOCIATED PRESS
Heavy snows choked mountain passes from California to Washington today while rains and gales continued to pound wide areas of the Pacific Northwest.

Eastern Washington and Oregon were under a snow blanket with some depths reaching 5 feet and more in some of the passes across the Cascades.

Whole gale warnings were up for coastal sections of the Pacific Northwest. Winds of 75 miles an hour lashed North Bend, Ore. this morning. By an odd quirk the temperature early today was warmer in North Bend, Ore., than it was in San Diego, Cal.

14 BELOW IN MONTANA
Newport, Ore., got 1.27 inches of rain in six hours and Eugene, Ore., measured one inch. Heavy rain falling on a 7-inch snow blanket made Portland, Ore., a sea of slush.

Yakima, Wash., measured 10 inches of snow on the ground as the storm moved toward the northern Rockies.

Early morning temperatures ranged from 14 below zero in Havre, Mont., to 69 degrees in Key West, Fla.

The northeastern section of the nation also was stung by fresh snow, rain and falling temperatures.

At least 25 deaths were attributed to violent storms that followed a coast-to-coast cold wave.

Although the South and many of the middle states are experiencing a warming trend, the northern corners of the nation had no relief.

With 8 inches of new snow today, portions of the Montana-North Dakota area were still digging out from the storms in an effort to save thousands of stranded cattle and sheep.

CATTLE SUFFOCATE

Hundreds of cattle suffocated as ice formed on their nostrils and mouths, North Dakota Gov. William Guy called a meeting with Civil Defense, National Guard and highway department officials to determine what can be done to help the snowed-in ranchers.

"I've never seen a storm like that one," said one North Dakota rancher. Some portions of the state were declared disaster areas.

Lightning, thunder, hail, snow and gusty winds struck sections of Montana as cold arctic air met with warmer Pacific air.

Lightning knocked the face from a clock in a Helena valley home.

ROADS ARE OPEN

Most of the state and federal highways were open to traffic but back roads were snowed in. Some officials said it would take weeks to open the country routes.

The Air Force planned to airlift five tons of hay to stranded cattle and sheep.

In the Northwest, mixed rain and snow caused hazardous driving conditions in Washington, where three persons died in traffic accidents. Two boys were killed in sledding mishaps near Seattle.

Heavy rains struck northern California and gale warnings were posted along the northern coast. Heavy snow was expected in the northern and central Sierras where travel warnings were issued.

HEAVY RAIN

More than 10 inches of rain fell on Los Angeles County, contributing to 10 traffic fatalities, authorities said.

Snow in New Mexico was blamed for one traffic death and a plane crash in which one man was seriously injured.

Interstate 80 in Oregon opened Sunday, freeing 200 stranded motorists who were caught Friday and Saturday.

In Indiana, three persons died on slick roads.

On the East Coast, central and southern New England were struck by four inches of snow as temperatures dropped to near zero in northern Maine.

In northern New York State, temperatures fell close to zero and fresh snow covered the area.

Four members of a California family were killed near Wheeling, W. Va., in a car-truck accident on slush-covered Route 40.

Other weather-attributed fatalities were reported in Pennsylvania, Colorado and Iowa.

SAIGON, South Viet Nam (AP) — A U.S. Army officer was killed 25 miles northwest of Saigon today by a Viet Cong.

He was the 238th American to die in combat in almost exactly three years of fighting here. The first American killed in the Viet Cong war also died near Saigon, on Dec. 22, 1961.

STORM POUNDS U. S. FREIGHTER

By GEORGE CORNELL
NEW YORK (AP) — A cracked and imperiled American freighter wallowed helplessly in the stormy Atlantic today, with the captain and two crewmen still aboard.

A Coast Guard cutter arrived on the scene about dawn and reported that winds had risen to gale force of 30 m.p.h., and high seas prevented boarding the stricken vessel.

The 7,600-ton freighter, the Smith Voyager, was listing to starboard at about 35 degrees.

Except for the master, Capt. Frederick W. Mohle, 59, and the other two men, the crew abandoned her Sunday. Another ship picked up 34 men, and the bodies of four others who died in the operation.

One man, of the crew of 42, was unaccounted for.

The 311-foot Coast Guard cutter Rockaway radioed that it had reached the stricken American vessel cracked amidship and drifting without power about 780 miles east southeast of Bermuda.

Today In Washington

WASHINGTON (AP) — Le-
Roy Collins, director of the Community Relations Service, expects more civil rights disturbances next summer — both in the North and South — despite his agency's efforts to encourage communities to eliminate sources of unrest.

Racial problems in the North, said Collins, who heads the conciliation service created by the 1964 Civil Rights Act, are far more complex than they are in the South.

Ghetos based on long-standing discrimination, Collins said, make solutions enormously difficult and complex.

Collins was interviewed Sunday on CBS' radio and television show "Face the Nation."

WASHINGTON (AP) — The
Securities and Exchange Commission says savings by individuals rose to a postwar record of $8.3 billion during July, August and September. This was $700 million more than the second quarter total and $1.5 billion higher than the July-September period last year.

WASHINGTON (AP) — The
Atomic Energy Commission exploded another underground nuclear device at its Nevada test site in its efforts to develop excavation techniques which conceivably might be employed to build the proposed sea-level canal through Central America.

The announcement late Saturday said the Friday blast was equivalent to about 100 tons of TNT.

WASHINGTON (AP) — The
number of Negroes holding high paying federal jobs has increased for the third year in a row.

The White House made public late Saturday in a minority census taken in June for the President's Committee on Equal Employment Opportunity which showed a 19.5 per cent increase — 32 persons — in the number of Negroes holding federal jobs paying from $10,250 to $24,500 yearly.

WASHINGTON (AP) — Congress
will be asked next year to make it possible for the American public to view a film prepared as a memorial to the late President John F. Kennedy.

Sen. George S. McGovern, D-S.D., said Saturday he will introduce a "sense of Congress" resolution urging the U.S. Information Agency to arrange for distribution of the film through domestic educational media and commercial television.

The film, "John F. Kennedy — Years of Lightning, Day of Drums," was prepared for showing around the world. The agency has no authority to release it for domestic audiences.

Oversized Catfish Heavy Investment

LOUISVILLE, Ky. (AP) —
A certain big-mouthed catfish at a nearby lake is putting the bite on the lake's owners.

Seems the owners buy the big catfish back from anglers at $2 a pound.

Big-mouth weighs 21 pounds. One recent weekend Randall Cartwright of Marysville, Ind., caught the big fellow. Goodbye, $42.

Then, another fisherman — Carl Skinner of Jeffersonville, Ind. — and another $42.

The fish is identifiable as it has only one eye. So far it has cost the lake owners $94.50 — as they paid $10.50 for him when he was put in the water.

ONE HUNDRED YEARS AGO

Another Draft! The President has ordered another Draft for 800,000 men. This we learn by a despatch received this morning.

The Examination of the Public Schools of the Borough took place last week, according to previous notice, occupying Tuesday, Wednesday and Thursday. The exercises were of an interesting character, particularly the High School, where the ordinary exercises were varied by declamation, composition and singing. The Board of Directors expressed themselves as highly pleased with the condition of the Schools and considered the Examination as evincing an improvement on previous ones.

The U.S. Mint at Philadelphia within the past six months has coined about eighteen millions of the new copper cents. The November reporter of that institution states that five million six hundred and ten thousand cents, and three million one hundred and forty-five thousand two-cent pieces were coined last month. "What becomes of them?" Somebody, or rather, a good many bodies must be hoarding them up, but for what purpose it would puzzle any sensible body to tell. After the war is over they will become a perfect drag and nuisance.

Forty-two of our starved martyrs died at Annapolis on Tuesday, mostly of chronic diarrhoea. They were placed in their graves with military honors. Energetic effort is put forth at Washington and at Annapolis to get to their homes immediately all of those exchanged prisoners that can bear railroad transportation.

We learn through private letters from exchanged prisoners that Wm. Ziegler of this place, who was a member of Co. F, 87th Pa. regiment, is not dead, but remains a prisoner in the hands of the rebels. He was captured in the battle of the Wilderness and when last heard was at Millen, Ga. David Myers from this place who was captured at the same time, we learn, died at Andersonville.

SEVENTY-FIVE YEARS AGO

The town council have agreed to pay $1,500 a year for five years to the gas company or any other party who will light the streets of the borough from dark to dawn every day.

Messrs. M. G. Comfort and Edgar Miller have purchased the grocery store of John Cunningham & Son of this place and will take possession Jan. 1st.

Sam'l. L. Johns, the enterprising cigar manufacturer of McSherrystown, has two more buildings under way in that place.

Mr. Simon J. Diller has altered the course of Stevens Run through his meadow. He has converted it into a straight bed from Washington street to the alley west of Carlisle street and thence at a right angle to the bed of the run.

The Christmas season will be generally observed by the churches of the town, special exercises having been arranged in most of them. Tuesday evening appropriate services will be held by the Sunday Schools of the Presbyterian, Christ and Methodist churches. Christmas evening the Sunday School of St. James and the Reformed

THE CHRISTMAS SPIRIT

In entering upon the Christmas season I always think it highly important that we do not forget that we are looking forward to the celebration of the birth of Christ, and not to the task of what we can buy as gifts for our friends, no matter how much we love them.

It is wonderful that there can be at least one day of the year when we will be thinking of others, and of a way to bring a ray of light and happiness into their lives. Every kind act of thoughtfulness is a tribute to the spirit of Christmas, and to the one whose birth we celebrate.

The shepherds and wisemen brought simple gifts to the manger where Christ was born. It was to express their joy over the event and so they came and bowed in worship. They were simple people who came to the crude environment, and there was no grand display made of their gifts, nor of their presence at so great a moment.

We ought to make our gifts at Christmas time simple, within our means, wrapped in love and sincerity, aptly fitting the spirit of those shepherds who went to present themselves, even more than their gifts. The significance of the birth itself must creep into our hearts, cleansing and dedicating them anew to the service and happiness of others.

It isn't what we give, but how we give that makes gifts at Christmas time so significant. It's Christ we are honoring and to whom we are rendering our love and devotion; celebrating His birth, His inspiring ministry, and the ideals for living that He left for our emulation and daily practice.

No other event in history has ever matched the birth of that Christ Child at Bethlehem. No other figure has so influenced mankind, or brought such beauty and comfort into the lives of so many. His was a mission of peace and good will for all the world to enjoy. But how sadly parts of the world are receiving that message!

HINTING SEASON

Somewhat feathery the neckwear, somewhat thin the dressing gown. And the gloves have bursted fingers! Seven, the size; or gray or brown. The pajama coats are shredded—sign of many a sudden twist. 'Tis again the hinting season for the Christmas shopping list.

Slipper soles are worn and broken and the uppers almost gone. Shirts won't last for the duration; now in good condition, none. Shorts—will take them green or orchid—if you like them and insist— Comes once more the hinting season for the Christmas shopping list.

Socks make lovely gifts for men folk. All are worn at heel and toe; But, of course, while we have shoes on these are holes that never show.

New suspenders? They are tokens that would certainly be missed. So, my dears, be sure to have them on your Christmas shopping list.

No Crises In Sight For President Over Christmas

WASHINGTON (AP) — President Johnson couldn't have a much better Christmas. He has everything going for him.

There's no crisis in sight. He has four years as President ahead. The country is prosperous. His own Democrats, in control of Congress, outnumber the Republicans tremendously.

Worse than that for his opposition, the decimated Republicans are even divided on where they go from here.

The Russians, having scuttled Nikita Khrushchev, are trying to get accustomed to being without him, but the Red Chinese are just as mad at them as they were at Khrushchev.

MADE FEW PROMISES

Johnson made so few promises in the election campaign he is free to go in almost any direction now and by soft-pedaling what he has in mind he has saved himself from criticism before he gets started.

Although the United States is the strongest military power on earth, the NATO Allies are disagreeing among themselves but they have been doing that quite a while and Johnson can not be blamed for it.

In fact, if they start getting along soon, he will probably get much of the credit since, instead of bargaining into the differences, he presents himself as the spreader of oil on troubled waters.

CIVIL RIGHTS SUBSIDE

Even the civil rights turmoil has subsided a bit. And, thanks to the Supreme Court's approval of the ban on discrimination in places like hotels and restaurants, one big cause of trouble has had much of the sting taken out.

Johnson would like to keep the budget for next year below $100 billion, and he will be working at it on his Texas ranch this week, getting ready to present his figures to Congress in January.

But even here if he cannot reach the desired figure, a storm is unlikely because he has already done such a good job of creating an image of himself as a penny-pincher.

True, he does not seem to have figured out yet how to handle the press. He has been trying it every which way: in big news conferences announced ahead of time; in peripatetic conferences with a handful of reporters on the White House lawn; or in his office with small, selected groups of newsmen who can report what he says so long as they do not say he said it.

CASTRO STILL PAINS

Nevertheless, he has been getting along all right, even with such mixed up arrangements, and no wonder. As President, he will keep on making front pages when he says anything and when he doesn't.

Fidel Castro is still a pain, but he was a pain to President John F. Kennedy, and there is no immediate need for a solution.

Littlestown News Briefs

The Communists in Viet Nam are making a mess of any Johnsonian hopes for a quick or easy victory, but Kennedy had to sweat that one out too, and by playing pretty mum Johnson is keeping down the anxiety factor.

NO CABINET FUSSES

There is no sound of fussing among the Cabinet members he inherited from Kennedy and as they depart one by one, as they probably will, it will all be done with a public exchange of sweet regrets, thus preserving a position of harmony.

All this quietude, being a bit abnormal in the White House, may not last much beyond the first of the year. But, until then, Johnson can enjoy his Christmas tree, saying thanks to Santa Claus for a happy holiday.

FIVE INSTALLED IN CONSISTORY

The five newly-elected consistorymen of Redeemer's United Church of Christ were installed during the Sunday worship service. They include J. Everett Feeder and Richard B. Hartlaub, elders; Roy N. Beard, Laverne P. Louey and John E. Shomper, deacons. Prior to the installation, the Rev. Glenn K. Flinchbaugh, pastor, ordained all except Mr. Feeder.

The pastor delivered a sermon on the subject "Shadow Over Christmas" and read the scriptures from Philipians and St. Matthew. The Chancel Choir sang the anthem "The Holy City." William R. Gall was acolyte. Flowers were placed in the sanctuary by Mr. and Mrs. Kenneth K. Kroh, Mr. and Mrs. William M. Ebaugh, the Ladies' Aid Society and the Hustler's Class.

There will be no rehearsals of the Cherub, Junior, Senior High and Chancel Choirs this week. All four choirs will participate in the Christmas Eve candlelight worship at 7:30 p.m.

The preparatory service will be held next Sunday at 10:30 a.m. The sacrament of Holy Communion will be observed January 3. Redeemer's Junior High and Senior High Youth Fellowships went Christmas caroling Sunday evening. Following the singing the young people returned to the church for refreshments. The next regular meeting of the groups will be held Sunday, January 3, at 6:30 p.m.

$60 MILLIONS IN DONATIONS NEEDED BY U.N.

By WILLIAM N. OATIS

UNITED NATIONS, N.Y. (AP) — U.N. officials figure that the United Nations needs only $50 million or $60 million in voluntary contributions to pull out of the insolvency caused by $126 million in unpaid dues for peacekeeping operations.

But they are having trouble getting the Russians to help raise that much, even though the United States has cut $9.4 million off the sum it insisted the Soviet Union should chip in.

Secretary-General U Thant and Alex Quaison-Sackey, president of the General Assembly, are negotiating with the two big powers in hopes of settling the dispute over peacekeeping assessments and voting rights before the assembly's Christmas recess begins Wednesday.

MAY RESCUE JAN. 11

Some diplomats believed the assembly could resume Jan. 11 without risking a Soviet-U.S. clash over the issue.

Article 19 of the U.N. Charter says any member two years behind in its assessments "shall have no vote" in the assembly. The Russians are more than two years behind because they refuse to pay assembly assessments for financing the Congo and Middle East peacekeeping forces. They contend that the Security Council alone is authorized to start and finance such forces. After Jan. about 120 other countries will be two years delinquent, many of them for the same reasons.

The negotiations are aimed at setting up a voluntary fund as a face-saving device into which the Soviet Union and other members can pay so as to provide money to liquidate the peacekeeping deficit.

CONRAD PLANS HOME STRETCH

CAPE TOWN, South Africa (AP) — America's flying grandfather, Max Conrad, plans to take off Christmas eve on a lonely 65-hour solo flight in a small twin-engine plane from Cape Town to New Orleans.

The 61-year-old veteran ferry pilot was turned back by engine trouble Wednesday only 700 miles after he started out on the 8,316-mile flight.

Conrad limped back to Alexander Bay with an oil leak in one engine. After repairing his plane in Pretoria over the weekend, he returned here Sunday to prepare for a second attempt on the long flight.

Referring to his five-hour fight to bring the plane—heavy with fuel—back to land, Conrad said, "I had no hope at all in the first hour—if I had ditched I would never have been seen again. I don't want that trouble again."

If Conrad makes it to New Orleans nonstop, he will break the world's distance record again which he holds for light planes.

Tough Choice Ahead For Princeton's Bill Bradley

By THE ASSOCIATED PRESS

Bill Bradley of Princeton is faced with a problem that would fascinate most of the ambitious young collegians in the country — whether to turn professional or accept a Rhodes Scholarship.

The 6-foot-5 All-America basketball player and ace of this country's victorious Olympic basketball team, was one of four major collegiate athletes among the 32 college seniors named to Rhodes Scholarships Sunday.

The scholarships make them eligible for two years of graduate study at Oxford.

DECISION SOON

"I'm not trying to be dramatic," he said at his home in Crystal City, Mo., where he is spending Christmas vacation. "I just can't say right now what my chances are of trying to play professional basketball. I'll announce my decision shortly, just as soon as I have a chance to talk to some people."

In the history of the awards, none has ever been turned down. The candidates for the scholarships are carefully screened, tested and interviewed.

"We'd been through so much," said Harvard basketball player Merle McClurg, another scholarship winner, "I hardly had any reaction at all. It had been such a long grind — the tests and interviews — I was pretty well dulled by the time I was told I'd won."

Other athletes who won the coveted Rhodes were Mike Smith, regular center on Princeton's Ivy League football champions, and Bart Holaday, place kicker on the Air Force Academy football team.

Bradley, an All-America selection as a junior last season, is one of the nation's leading collegiate basketball scorers and one of the top professional prospects.

HERSHEY WINS IN OVERTIME

By THE ASSOCIATED PRESS

That dash up ice must have winded Rochester goalie Jerry Cheevers, who set up the Americans' tying goal in what soon became a 2-1 American Hockey League loss to Hershey Sunday night.

Rochester was trailing 1-0 in the last minute of regulation time when Cheevers made a save and carried the puck up to his own blue line before passing to Dick Gamble. As Cheevers hopped over the boards to give the Americans an extra attacker, Gerry Ehman slipped in the tying goal, forcing the game into overtime.

It took Hershey's Myron Staniewicz just 25 seconds to beat Cheevers in the sudden death session and end a five-game Hershey losing streak.

In other AHL action Sunday, Buffalo edged Baltimore 3-2, Providence downed Quebec 4-2 and Pittsburgh whacked Cleveland 7-3.

In Saturday's AHL games, Cleveland downed Pittsburgh 5-3, Quebec stopped Hershey 5-3 and Springfield blanked Buffalo 5-0.

HAWKS PUSH STREAK TO 7

By HAL BOCK

Associated Press Sports Writer

Bobby Hull, scoring goals at a fantastic clip, is wearing a big grin these days but not because of his own scoring pace.

Hull, with 28 goals in 29 games, looms as a strong threat to break the National Hockey League record of 50 in one season that he shares with Bernie Goeffion and Maurice Richard.

"I hope it never ends," says Hull of his pace. And you might say he feels the same way about a small string of goals put together by one of his Chicago Black Hawk teammates.

Young Dennis Hull, who spent the first third of the National Hockey League season hidden in his brother's shadow, now seems to have won his letter. The 20-year-old rookie scored twice over the weekend while brother Bobby clicked three times as the Hawks stretched their winning streak to seven games.

Each Hull hit once in Sunday night's 3-2 victory over Boston but it was another youngster, Phil Esposito, who scored the winning goal. Esposito, a center whose promotion to the Hull line coincides with the Black Hawks' streak, scored the winning goal in the last four minutes and now has 13 for the season.

In other NHL action Sunday, Montreal edged New York 3-2 and Detroit topped Toronto 3-1. Dennis potted his first NHL goal Saturday night in Montreal as the Hawks won 6-3.

G-BURG SWIM, MAT TEAMS IN FINE STARTS

The Gettysburg College swimming and wrestling teams go into the Christmas break with winning records. This, combined with the basketball team's 3-3 mark, gives the Bullets their best start in several years.

Coach Curt Coull's tankmen romped to three straight victories before being dropped by Bucknell 71-24 in Lewisburg. The Bisons are the defending NCAA small college champions. The Bullets trounced Lock Haven State, St. Joseph's and Washington and Lee to post a 3-1 record.

Gettysburg's swimmers have broken 17 records in the first four clashes. The two big victors have been freestyle Craig Van Tatenhove, North Caldwell, N. J., and Rudy Soocy, Trenton, N. J. So far Van Tatenhove has taken part in all four freestyle distances and has set records in all four. Soocy, one of the finest divers in the area, has broken both the school and pool records twice this year.

BAVARO UNBEATEN

Coach Ray Reider, in his first season as head wrestling coach, has guided the Bullet grapplers to a 2-1 slate in their pre-Christmas schedule. Gettysburg has turned back Juniata and Muhlenberg and has lost to Virginia.

Joe Baxaro, Island Park, N. Y., is the team's top point producer from his 157-pound class. Bavaro is 3-0 with all victories coming via pins. Sophomore Scott Higgins, Manhasset, N.Y., is holding his own in the 147 events. He has wrestled in two of the three matches and has won both by decisions.

The Gettysburg swimmers will pick up their schedule on January 9 when they journey to American University in Washington. The wrestlers will return to action January 6 with a match at Dickinson.

CBS REVIEW SHOWS 1964 QUITE A YEAR

By CYNTHIA LOWRY

AP Television-Radio Writer

NEW YORK (AP) — It shapes up, as they all do, to quite a year, this passing 1964. CBS, in two hours Sunday afternoon, looked back on its choice of its most "memorable sights and sounds."

There were the terrible ones, filmed during the "long, hot summer" troubles in Harlem, Rochester and Philadelphia, Miss. There was Dora, the hurricane that hit Florida and the Good Friday earthquake that shook Alaska. There were the vacuum into which Khrushchev disappeared, and the troubles in South Viet Nam and the Congo.

CBS faithfully recapitulated them all, along with the presidential conventions, campaigns and election, the Jack Ruby trial and the Warren Commission report on the assassination of John F. Kennedy.

HAPPIER EVENTS

Narrator Harry Reasoner also pointed out some of the happier and lighter events — the Olympic Games, the acute epidemic of "Beatlemania," Lucie Baines Johnson dancing what Reasoner said was the frug — my informant insist it was the Watusi — topos bathing suits and lace stockings.

Reasoner also listed, alphabetically and without further identification, some of those we have lost who need no identification — Brendan Behan, Eddie Cantor, Ian Fleming, Herbert Hoover, Douglas MacArthur, Pierre Monteux, Nehru and many more.

At the end of the two hours, Reasoner reminded us that many of the happier things were overlooked — nobody bothered to take pictures of a river that was not overflowing its banks, or a walk in the woods or "a man finding a dollar bill in an unused pair of pants."

"Remember," he summed up, "that no one dropped the bomb, the economy is prospering — and it finally did rain."

Recommended tonight: "The Andy Williams Show," NBC, 9-10 EST — the Williams brothers reunited for some holiday singing; "Christmas in Appalachia," CBS, 10-10:30 — news special.

Lehigh Will Meet Cornell Gridders

BETHLEHEM — Cornell will replace Yale on the Lehigh football schedule in 1965, the season celebrating the university's centennial anniversary.

The 1965 Engineer schedule, announced by William B. Leckonby, director of athletics at the university, also includes a new Southern Conference opponent, Furman, replacing Colgate.

The complete 1965 Lehigh football schedule includes Pennsylvania, away, on September 25; Cornell at home on October 2; Rutgers, away, on October 9; Gettysburg at home on October 16; Delaware at home on October 23; Furman at home on October 30; Davidson, away, on November 6; Bucknell, away, on November 13, and Lafayette at home on November 20.

BARILE TOPS FROSH SCORERS

The sixth man on the Gettysburg College freshman basketball team has taken over the scoring lead in the first four games played before the Christmas vacation.

Tom Barile, a 6'2" native of Bound Brook, N. J., holds a slim lead over four starters. He has poured through 52 points on 19 of 34 field goals and 13 of 31 fouls for a 12.8 average. Tied for second place are first unit men Craig Guers, 6'2", Shickshiny, and Jack Stailey, 6', Batavia, N. Y. Both have scored 43 points for a 10.8 average.

Barile's 35 per cent from the field is tops in that department while Bob Matthews, 6', Rochester, N. Y., is the team's leading foul shot with 11 for 13 for 85 per cent. Guers, with 43 rebounds, paces the board men, but is receiving stiff competition from 6'4" Ross Krumm, Alexandria, Va. Krumm has pulled 38 off the boards for a 9.5 average.

The Little Bullets have turned in an amazing 86.5 scoring average per game. Coach John Carpenter's yearlings are 3-1 on the year and will be idle until January 6 when they entertain Dickinson. The Bullet frosh have defeated Albright 69-56; Columbian Prep 100-57; and the army War College 97-51. The lone setback came on an 81-80 overtime loss to Bucknell.

Woman Replaces Tenor In "Messiah"

SAN FRANCISCO (AP) — Mezzo-soprano Frances Bible will replace male singer Russell Oberlin as a featured soloist in the San Francisco Symphony's Christmas performance of Handel's "Messiah."

The change is possible because Oberlin's countertenor range is close to that of the woman singer's. Oberlin, who is ill, is one of the most famous of the countertenors, who specialize in baroque and Renaissance music.

ILLINI ROMP AWAY WITH TOURNEY TITLE

By DICK COUCH

Associated Press Sports Writer

Adolph Rupp and his Kentucky Wildcats — true believers in Southern hospitality — are gracious hosts each December at the UK Invitational Basketball Tournament. There is only one house rule for visitors to Lexington — don't walk off with the silverware!

That may explain the Baron's displeasure today with his cousins from Illinois.

The once-beaten Illinois romped off with the tourney title last Saturday night, topping Kentucky 91-86 in the final despite a closing rush by the eighth-ranked Wildcats. It was Illinois' first victory over Kentucky since 1943 and the first UKIT title for a Big Ten team in nine years. The host club had won seven of 11 previous tournaments.

BLEW BIG MARGIN

Skip Thoren scored 27 points and Tal Brody 25 for the Illini. 6-1. They blew a 16-point margin late in the game before Brody and Bill McKeown hit six straight free throws to pull away from an 83-82 edge.

The tournament drew 23,300 fans, a record for the two-night, four-team event. Dayton beat West Virginia 71-67 for third place.

Three other tourney-stagers kept the home crowds happy. Ninth-ranked Vanderbilt edged Oklahoma State 60-58 in the Commodores' Tournament final at Nashville; Arizona State outran Murray, Ky., 107-96 to capture the Sun Devil Classic at Tempe, Ariz., and Evansville's giant-killers whipped Louisiana State 93-73 for the Evansville Holiday crown.

CHAMPS BELT BOSTON

Larry Humes hit for 45 points as Evansville, the nation's No. 1 small-college club, completed a season-opening five-game sweep of major opponents and won its tourney for the sixth time in nine years. The Aces beat Iowa, Northwestern and Notre Dame before knocking off George Washington and LSU in the tournament.

UCLA's defending major college champions belted Boston College 115-93 and Alabama surprised North Carolina 66-61 in the finals of the Milwaukee and Virginia Tech Invitionals, respectively.

A run of 18 straight points at the end of the first half sparked the Bruins to their fifth successive victory after an opening loss at Illinois. Gail Goodrich topped UCLA with 35 points, more than BC's John Astin, who sat out 10 minutes of the second half with an injured wrist.

OTHER RESULTS

Elsewhere, No. 1 ranked Wichita and No. 10 St. Louis won Missouri Valley Conference games while Minnesota, Indiana, Utah, Providence and Connecticut remained unbeaten.

Dave Stallworth's 25 points led the Wheatshockers past Drake 71-60 and Randy Albrecht's two free throws with three seconds remaining wapped up the Billikens' 76-73 decision over previously unbeaten Bradley.

Minnesota, 5-0, routed Utah State 88-69. Indiana buried Detroit 108-89; Utah beat California 99-74 and Providence nipped Iowa 71-70. The Hoosiers' Ules and Friars have won six straight. The Uconnns, whose 7-0 mark tops the list of 11 major unbeaten, got past Fordham 70-67.

Sixth-ranked Duke ran over Virginia 104-91 and St. John's, N.Y., No. 7, outscored Notre Dame 76-72.

TULSA UPSETS OLE MISS IN BLUEBONNET

HOUSTON, Tex. (AP) — Jerry Rhome and an unexpectedly tough Tulsa defense exploded Mississippi's favored spot in the Bluebonnet Bowl.

But the 14-7 Tulsa victory led to some sharp criticism of the Ole Miss Rebels.

While the passing whiz wiped out Mississippi — which had been an 11-point favorite — Rebel Coach Johnny Vaught's post-game actions ired sports writers.

UPSET BY RULINGS

Vaught, a Texas Christian University graduate and long a favorite among Texas football fans, initially was upset by two late fourth-quarter rulings by the officials.

Then he apparently was ired at having lost the game, the eighth consecutive bowl game for the Rebels.

He kept a group of impatient sports writers waiting in 39-degree cold for a half-hour after the game. They had to wait until all the players had filed out the door.

"BLOOD AND MONEY"

In his Monday column, Houston Post Sports Editor Mickey Herskowitz described the Bluebonnet Bowl a perfect one except for Ole Miss manners.

"(At Mississippi) football is played for blood and money, and they don't let you forget it," Herskowitz wrote.

"Ole Miss came to Houston aware that it had just two obligations to the Bluebonnet Bowl. To have 11 bodies on the field at 2:30 Saturday and to send someone around after the game to the cashier's window to pick up their check."

Mississippi had given Tulsa's national pass champion Rhome a rough time in the early stages — he was thrown for losses eight times — but he scored the tying touchdown in the second quarter and won the game with a 35-yard pass to Eddie Fletcher in the third period.

George Strouse, senior backcourt man from Norwich, Conn., has gotten off to an average start in his conquest to become Gettysburg College's fifth basketball player in history to crack the 1,000 point total.

In the six games to date, Strouse has landed 37 of 88 free shots and 15 of 21 fouls for 89 points or a 14.8 average to take the team scoring lead. He entered the season with 755 points to his credit. Strouse's best season was his sophomore campaign when he tallied 427 points for a 17.8 average per contest. Last year he banged in 328 points for a 13.7 average.

Gettysburg ended its pre-Christmas schedule with a 3-3 record. The Bullets dropped contests to Temple, Muhlenberg and Penn State, but defeated Albright, Bucknell and Johns Hopkins.

Coach Bob Hulton's squad will return to action on January 6 when it entertains undefeated Dickinson.

OTHER LEADERS

Jim Ruck, junior from Northport, N. Y., is among the early statistical leaders. His field shooting is clipping along at a .500 pace, landing 13 of 26 shots. Junior Chris Sirms, Elkins Park, is the squad's best foul shot, hitting on 12 of 13 tries for 92 per cent. Ruck and "Chuck" Richardson, Bergenfield, N. J., top the rebounders with 52 or an 8.7 average per contest.

Gettysburg finished the 1963-64 season as the nation's third best major defensive team. The Bullets appear to be out to retain that ranking as they have limited the opposition to an even 57 points per game. On the other hand, their own scoring average remains below par with a 59.3 average. As a team

EGYPT CLAIMS PLANE IGNORED ORDER TO LAND

By GEORGE MCARTHUR
CAIRO (AP) — The Egyptian government said today a U.S. oil company plane shot down near Alexandria Saturday ignored repeated orders to land.

Its American pilot and Scandinavian copilot were killed. They were identified only as Hoyt Williams, 44, of Texas, and Kejel Grup, 35, a Scandinavian.

A U.S. Embassy spokesman said the plane, a twin-engine Fairchild C82, belonged to the John W. Mecom Oil Co. of Houston, Tex.

The plane was on a flight from Amman, Jordan, to Benghazi, Libya, to buy drilling detergent for Mecom's operations in Jordan, a company spokesman said.

INTERCEPTED BY MIGs
The Egyptian government said two Egyptian MIG fighters intercepted the plane as it started across the Sinai Desert south of Aqaba, Jordan, and ordered it to land at Cairo Airport.

After starting to set down, official reports said, the plane resumed its northwesterly course. It was shot down over Lake Idku, on the shores of the Mediterranean, the government said.

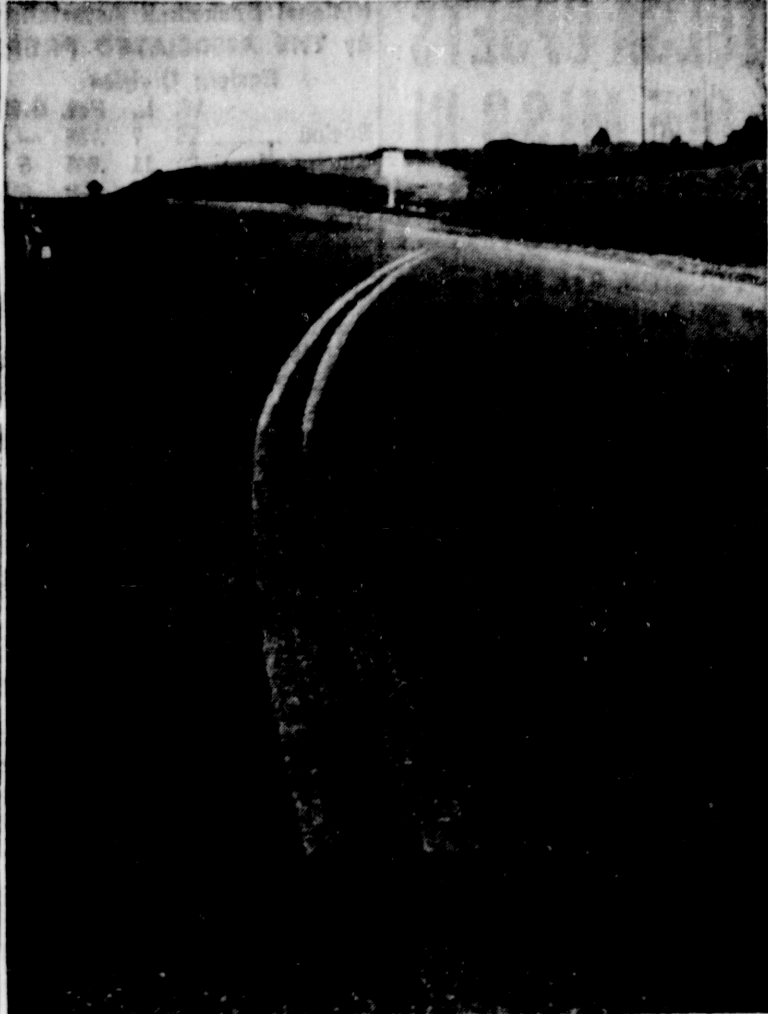

The pilot apparently filed a flight plan an hour before taking off from Amman. Egyptian authorities normally take a week to approve a flight plan and there appeared little doubt that officials here were not promptly informed of the flight.

ORDER ANALYSIS
The U.S. Embassy said it had requested a thorough analysis and review of the incident. It said the U.S. and Egyptian governments were cooperating in the investigation.

Although embassy sources said they viewed the situation with the utmost gravity, both governments appeared to be trying to prevent the incident from increasing the strain in U.S.-Egyptian relations resulting from the sacking a month ago of the John F. Kennedy Memorial Library in Cairo by a mob of African students.

BULLET HOLES IN PLANE
David Frittsland, U.S. consul general at Alexandria, visited the crash site Sunday. Eyewitnesses reported some of the wreckage appeared to be punctured by bullet holes.

W. Angie Smith, the Mecom company's foreign representative, left Houston for Cairo Sunday. Mecom, a multimillionaire Houston oil man, was reported

Hold Man Suspect In Church Fires

PHILADELPHIA (AP) — Police said a man slashed his wrists in a center-city subway concourse Sunday when officers closed in to arrest him after he created a disturbance in the Cathedral of St. Peter and Paul.

John Louge, 41, was held for psychiatric observation in Philadelphia General Hospital after a chase through the streets in which a park guard fired three warning shots.

Police said because of the church incident, they were checking on Louge in regard to a series of church fires that have been set here and in Boston recently.

You can use a table fork, instead of getting out your beaters, when you want to "beat eggs lightly" as is often directed in recipes. Beat only enough to blend the yolks with the whites.

Mecom earlier this year signed a 40-year contract giving him oil wildcatting rights in all of Jordan. He is a close friend of King Hussein, and the young monarch visited him in Houston after they signed the contract.

MACK TRUCK CONTRACT OK

ALLENTOWN, Pa. (AP) — Some 7,000 workers at Mack Truck Co. plants in Allentown, Hagerstown Md., Bridgewater, N.J., and Cortland, N.Y., prepared to return to work today following overwhelming ratification of a new three-year contract by locals of the United Auto Workers, AFL-CIO. The action ended a 42-day strike.

The locals ratified the contract Sunday after the union and the company reached an agreement on all master contracts and local issues.

Under the new pact, all non-incentive employees will receive improvement factor increases ranging from 6 to 10 cents an hour in the second year and 7 to 12 cents in the third year plus an additional 2 cents an hour in the third year.

Shop and office employees at Hagerstown will get 21 cents an hour in three installments over and beyond this to close the gap between their wage rates and those of the automotive truck industry. They will receive 9 cents in the first year, 6 in the second and 6 in the third, plus one half cent to be applied to inequity.

Incentive employees at Allentown will receive no increase throughout the contract except for 2 cents in 1966 for elimination of inequities and the normal cost of living escalator increase.

The new Soviet regime has denounced what it calls a "cult of personality." It has been standard Soviet practice, however, to omit fanfare over birthdays in the past.

The 70-year-old former British monarch already has walked in the hallway outside his room with a minimum of assistance. He sat for short periods, read newspapers and watched television over the weekend. He continued on a liquid diet.

The surgery was for removal of an artery blister known medically as an aneurysm.

ROME (AP) — Italy's deadlocked Parliament failed again today to elect a president. It was the ninth ballot and sixth day of voting with no winner in sight.

Four parties — the Socialists, Democratic Socialists and Republicans of the center-left coalition government, and the Fascist Italian Social Movement — refused to ballot in protest over the stalemate.

The balloting is to select a successor to Antonio Segni who resigned after being incapacitated.

INSTRUCTOR NAMED TO AID CULTURE PLAN

Dr. Leonel de La Cuesta, instructor in modern languages at Mt. St. Mary's College, Emmitsburg, has been selected to collaborate in the publications of the Congress for the Liberty of Culture.

The Congress is an international association of writers, scholars and artists from all over the world. Its primary goal is the defense of intellectual freedom and the development of creative and critical thought.

Among its members are such writers and scholars as Jacques Maritain, Karl Jaspers, Raymond Aron, Salvador de Madariaga, and Leopold Sendar Senghor.

Dr. de La Cuesta is currently working on a research project dealing with the evolution of the belles lettres in pre-Castro Cuba and the system of censorship of all means of communications in the arts since the establishment of the Communist system in Cuba.

Dr. de La Cuesta recently received a doctorate of laws degree from the Sorbonne in Paris. He also holds degrees from the University of Havana and the Catholic University of Villanova in Cuba.

OUT 70 OFFICERS

About 70 staff officers who had been assigned to the chief of state's office were shipped of under guard to the mountains north of Saigon. All had been on the staff of the former chief of state, Lt. Gen. Duong Van Minh, and had been left at the disposal of his successor.

The military's rapid move caught leaders of the Buddhists' antigovernment campaign by surprise. Their weekend of hunger striking and demonstrating was cut short and Buddhist followers were told: "For the time being just pray and go home."

BUDDHIST PRESSURE

Pressure from the Buddhists appeared to have been lifted, at least temporarily. Several of the politicians under arrest had been targets of the Buddhists, but several persons who had been associated with Buddhist extremists also were arrested.

The generals promised "impartiality vis-a-vis every religious and political difference," and said they were "ready to act as a mediator between all differences in order to achieve national unity, annihilate the Communists and safeguard the nation."

Lt. Gen. Nguyen Khanh, chief of the armed forces and former premier, nominally gave the order to dissolve the council and carry out the arrests. But reports said he was under close observation by the young generals and little more than a figurehead.

ance before the master asked that the divorce decree include an order awarding custody of her children to her.

The court noted that since amendment of the state's divorce laws in 1959 "where the court has jurisdiction over both parties . . . the court shall include in its decree . . . an order or orders determining or disposing of property rights and interests between the parties, custody and visitation rights, child support and any related matters."

"However," the court held, "the rule clearly contemplates that such additional matter to be determined in the divorce action shall be pleaded as an addition to the complaint in divorce, preferably as a second cause of action. Thus the defendant will be fully advised as to the matters to be determined in the action and will have an opportunity to answer and defend all such matters as he or she may see fit."

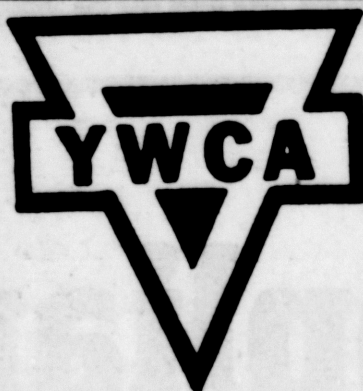

Since there were no "allegations relating to custody of the children and no prayer for such an order, all that the defendant was advised of by the papers served upon him was that his wife was seeking a decree in divorce. Under these

Many Avenues Open To Man Who Wants To Balance Tax

By SAM DAWSON

AP Business News Analyst

NEW YORK (AP) — A lot of people can save money by spending more right now. The money will be saved in taxes. The money spent must be for the right things, in the right way: charitable contributions, doctor bills, interest due, state and local tax bills due.

If you're in love, you could save tax money by getting married before New Year's Day. If you're moving to a new job in another town and the costs are up to you, you might save by transferring now rather than waiting to celebrate the New Year with your present neighbors.

DELAY MAILING BILLS

Or you might save in the long run by the money you don't take in right now — by delaying to mail bills, or to dun people for interest due, or to cash in those paper profits to get money for the holidays. You might save by admitting you picked some sour ones this year in the stock market and selling the stock and taking your loss — now, not sometime next year.

These possibilities arise because the federal income tax rates, which were cut on 1964 incomes, go down another notch in 1965. In 1963 the tax brackets cent. This year you pay from 16 to 77 per cent depending on how much income is subject to tax. The drop next year isn't that steep, but it's still something to consider. The 1965 rates will range from 14 to 70 per cent — and Congress could always get still more generous.

CURRENT DEDUCTIONS

So you'll pay less on the same amount of income next year. Therefore, any deduction this year will mean more money left over after taxes. And any income that can legally be put over till next year will be subject to a smaller bite from the U.S. Treasury.

Many people can't do much about it. But many can. And here are some of the possibilities:

Study your profit and loss sheet. Time is growing short. If you have paper losses on stocks or other investments, you can take the loss and use it to offset any capital gains up to $1,000. And under the new law, losses above $1,000 taken now can be carried forward to future years.

You may want to take profits now if you're among the really lucky one sure of much higher income next year that will be pushing you into a higher bracket than you're in now.

PAY MEDICAL BILLS

Pay all the bills now that are deductible — doctors and dentists, taxes and interest due this year. Don't put it off till next year just because your creditor is lenient.

Remember, under the new law, contributions to all public charities are now allowed as deductible up to 30 per cent. This actually cuts the cost to the giver by the amount of tax saved — and the saving will be more under this year's tax rate than next.

Some people may be working at cross purposes just now. Some will be anxious to pay bills by Dec. 31, while others may want to delay sending such bills till January, so the receipts will be subject to the new rates.

Weddings may cost the father of the bride plenty. But the bridegroom will get another exemption, plus a lower assessment schedule.

Americans who dream of a white Christmas with Santa popping down the chimney to the tune of "Jingle Bells" can thank assorted writers and poets and the northern climate. Christmas in the land of Christ's birth, however, is another matter.

What is Christmas like in Bethlehem?

There's generally no snow, for one thing, for winters are mild in the Judean Hills around Bethlehem. No Santa Claus listens to children's pleas, for he's an American invention based on a European saint. And there's probably no decorated Christmas tree in the village; that custom originated in Germany.

Instead, the focal point of Christmas in Bethlehem is the Church of St. Mary of the Nativity, supposedly built over the spot where Jesus was born. Here pilgrims from all over the world gather on Christmas Eve. First there is carol singing in the square facing the church. Then all enter for the solemn midnight Mass. After the service, an image of Christ is carried in a procession down into the grotto, and is placed in a manger where it lies until January 6, the Feast of the Epiphany.

After this ceremony, some may wander into the fields outside the town, where perhaps shepherds long ago heard the news of the birth of Christ.

All this takes place, of course, on the eve of December 25. But that's not the end of Christmas in Bethlehem. For the Eastern Orthodox churches celebrate the holiday January 6, and the Armenians observe it on January 18, which is January 6, according to the oldstyle, or Julian calendar.

AT LEAST 66 FIRE DEATHS IN 3 DAYS

By THE ASSOCIATED PRESS

At least 66 multiple fire deaths have been recorded over the nation in the last three days with more than half the victims children.

House fires killed six and seven persons at a time as cold weather gripped parts of the nation in advance of today's calendar start of the winter. Home furnaces were pushed to near maximum capacity.

The death toll by days:

Sunday: At least 20 dead, 14 children and six adults. A mother and her six youngsters perished in one upstate New York blaze.

Saturday: At least 26 dead, 23 children and three adults, with one fire killing six youngsters, and two others claiming five each.

Friday: Fire swept a nursing home in Fountaintown, Ind., killing 20 elderly residents.

The upstate New York fire killed Mrs. Paul B. Breeden, 26, and her six children, aged 2 to 8, in their home in Palmyra, near Rochester.

The 31-year-old father returned home from a business trip to Chicago an hour after the blaze was discovered. Two adjacent homes also were destroyed but the occupants escaped.

Breeden, a spot welder, had found work in Chicago and returned to pick up his family.

The Adams County Selective Service Board today received orders to send one man for induction into the armed forces on January 13. At the same time 26 men will go to Harrisburg for preinduction physical examinations.

received the name "Christians" at Antioch, Syria. One of the Christian communities outside Palestine grew up here.

The name "Christ" comes the Greek word for "Messiah."

The word "crusade" comes from the Latin word "crux," meaning "cross." The Cross of Christ was the official badge of those who joined the Crusades to the Holy Land during the Middle Ages, and the expression "taking the cross" meant becoming a crusader.

Christians make up the largest religious group in the world.

LBJ Will Spend Holidays Cutting Federal Spending In '65 Below $100 Billion

By KARL R. BAUMAN
JOHNSON CITY, Tex. (AP)—President Johnson gave budget-cutting top priority today as he settled down at the LBJ Ranch for the Christmas holidays. He planned to discuss spending with his budget director and three Cabinet officers.

Press secretary George E. Reedy described Johnson as determined to reduce spending requests "as prudently as he can, and as far as he can within the limits of efficiency and effectiveness."

PREDICT BIG CUT
Many administration officials in Washington are predicting that by New Year's Day, Johnson will have whacked federal spending proposals below $100 billion for the year starting July 1, 1965. He has said this will be difficult, but he did it last year after making some negative forecasts.

Those on hand at the ranch included Budget Director Kenneth Gordon, Secretary of Commerce Luther H. Hodges, Secretary of Labor W. Willard Wirtz, Secretary of the Interior Stewart L. Udall and Dr. Donald Hornig, presidential assistant for science and technology.

A Budget Bureau official said in Washington Saturday that about 10 departments and agencies are appealing from the spending limits recommended by Gordon, and that it's now up to the President to make the final decisions.

CONNOR HEARS REQUESTS
John T. Connor, who will succeed Hodges as secretary of commerce in January, also came from Washington with the President so he could sit in on discussion of the department's budget requests.

Original spending requests of 70 departments and agencies totaled $108.5 billion. Actual spending during the current fiscal year is currently estimated at $97.2 billion.

Some reductions have been made in the spending requests, but by how much has not been disclosed. These requests were only for existing programs and do not include new programs Johnson plans to recommend such as funds for the depressed Appalachia region.

NO COSTLY PLANS
Administration sources have said that none of the recommendations in Johnson's "Great Society" program will be spectacularly costly, at least in the first year.

Some increases in government spending are inevitable because of legally fixed outlays for such things as veterans benefits, interest on the debt and government pay raises.

There are indications Johnson may balance these by moving against such programs as space and atomic energy, cutting out unneeded installations and programs of lesser priority.

JAN. 1 DEADLINE
Work on the budget has to be completed by New Year's Day because it has to go to the printers then to be ready for Congress 15 days after the new session opens Jan. 4.

Johnson, accompanied by Mrs. Johnson and their 17-year-old daughter, Luci Baines, and the various government officials, arrived at Bergstrom Air Force Base near Austin Sunday after a flight of just under three hours from Andrews Air Force Base near Washington. From Bergstrom all except Luci flew by helicopter the 65 miles to the Johnson ranch. Luci got in some visiting with friends before driving to the ranch in company of a Secret Service agent.

LYNDA IN SCHOOL
The elder Johnson daughter, Lynda Bird, 20, has classes at George Washington University until Wednesday.

Some 200 persons saw Johnson's helicopter take off from the south lawn of the White House. Usually only a few persons are permitted within the White House grounds for a presidential take-off.

The 200 were members of the families of White House correspondents, who were touring the executive mansion at the President's invitation.

FIVE ARE HELD CAPTIVE; SIX GET $500,000

PATERSON, N.J. (AP)—Six men held three priests and two truck drivers prisoners today and looted a bank truck and church safe of an estimated half a million dollars.

Details of the robbery were sketchy but police said the two truck guards and three priests were handcuffed and left in the rectory while the truck was looted.

The gunmen entered the rectory before the bank truck had arrived and took the priests prisoner. Then they awaited the guards.

When the two guards entered, they were seized and handcuffed. The truck had gone to the rectory to pick up cash, presumably from Sunday's church collections.

Police said the bandits forced a priest to open the church safe before the guards arrived. The bandits looted the safe and the truck, a panel type, of the First National Bank of Passaic County.

The bandits made their escape by car. An alarm was phoned into police headquarters from the rectory of St. Anthony's Church.

DOCTOR CLAIMS PRESIDENT IS IN FINE SHAPE

By FRANK E. CAREY
Associated Press Science Writer
WASHINGTON (AP) — The man in all the world closest to President Johnson's heart — his cardiologist — said today that the President is in fine shape to weather the next four strenuous and demanding years.

Indeed, Dr. John Willis Hurst — who has been keeping regular tabs on the President's heart ever since his severe coronary attack in 1955 — indicated Johnson may even have an edge on many other men of his 56 years in coping with the physical and emotional stresses of life.

DISCOUNTS PACE
Dr. Hurst discounted any thought that the President, since taking office, has been maintaining a possibly dangerous "frantic" pace, as at least one doctor not associated with his case has put it.

Dr. Hurst, professor and chairman of the Department of Medicine, Emory University School of Medicine, Atlanta, Ga., made the statements in a telephone interview.

He thus became the second physician among the President's team of doctors to give an up-to-date — and highly optimistic — appraisal of the chief executive's health as he approaches his inauguration.

MAYO REPORTS
Earlier in the weekend, Dr. James W. Cain of the Mayo Clinic, Rochester, Minn., pronounced the President in "excellent health. There is no health reason why he should not continue an active, vigorous life for many years."

In fact, Dr. Cain added, "I think he's in better health than I've seen him in years."

Both physicians gave their appraisals on the basis of separate examinations — previously unannounced — each had made of the President at the White House during the past two weeks. Each stressed they had made the examinations only because they happened to be in Washington for other reasons.

IN FAVORABLE GROUP
Dr. Hurst said his first contact with Johnson was on that tense day, back in 1955, when the then Sen. Johnson — stricken by a coronary attack — was rushed to the Bethesda, Md., U.S. Naval Hospital where Hurst was then chief of the cardiology division.

Pointing out that about 9 1/2 years have now passed since Johnson's heart attack and that Johnson has shown no symptoms relating to his heart since his convalescence from the initial attack — Dr. Hurst said: "Following his convalescence, he has been extremely active and vigorous — and this, of course, is his nature."

"Since he has had no difficulty from his heart in nearly 10 years, he is now in a very favorable group. It is my belief that his health outlook is that of any other apparently healthy individual of comparable age."

Orderly Development In Congo Is Not Yet Likely

By WILLIAM L. RYAN

Chances for orderly development of the Congo are dim as yet, four years after its independence. That key country in the heart of Africa may be winning the melancholy distinction of becoming the main arena in the cold war.

In general, the U.S. aim in the Congo has been to keep it together and to keep the Communists out. If stability is the key to achieve this, it will be a tough struggle.

There is not much leadership timber to choose from. In the thin ranks of what is available, politics is a matter of every man for himself. The outs battle the ins, and the ins battle the outs.

AFRICAN NERVES RAW

Any Congo leader who is satisfactory to the United States will be opposed by the Communists, and probably also by many African leaders whose pan-African patriotism can cloak vaulting ambitions of their own.

Moise Tshombe came to power as premier last July. Since then propaganda of Communists and of leaders hostile to the United States has gone all out trying to turn him into the West's greatest liability.

Henri Spaak says black Africans are raw in Africa. Belgian Foreign Minister Paul-Henri Spaak says black Africans seem to suffer from a deep inferiority complex. They are easily swayed by slogans and labels, easily convinced that all their woes trace to colonialism and imperialism. Thus, when Tshombe antagonized virtually all sides with his attempt to set up a secessionist state in rich Katanga Province, he was easily labeled a "colonialist tool."

ACCUSED OF PLOTTING

When Tshombe's foes accused him of plotting the murder of Patrice Lumumba, the Congo's first premier, it was easy to make Lumumba a martyr and symbol of resistance to colonialism.

But Tshombe's departure into exile didn't save the Congo. Premier Cyrille Adoula's government was plagued by rebellions, supported and often inspired by Communists from outside. Moscow and Peking, though competing in the Congo for influence, both denounced Adoula as a man conspiring with the United States to crush "people's rebellions."

Finally, last June, Adoula quit. Tshombe returned, this time to Leopoldville, with promises to form a "government of national reconciliation" and achieve "miracles within three months." No sooner had he taken over than Kindu fell to rebels in the east, and, soon after, Stanleyville.

ARMY IN DISARRAY

Tshombe's army was in disarray. Tshombe himself desperately tried to accommodate all sides, even the Communist-supported "Council for National Liberation," which would cheerfully have nailed his hide to the wall.

Late in November, Belgium and the United States mounted a rescue operation to save hostages from rebel savagery in Stanleyville. African leaders hostile to the United States joined a chorus of denunciation, contending Americans thought more of a white man's life than a black man's.

But the dreary debate which continues in the United Nations makes it clear that the intervention was not so much the target as Tshombe. Leaders with ambitions of their own portray him as a man who would re-establish colonialism.

There is small comfort for the West in the Soviet-Chinese competition in Africa. When either Communist side gains, the West loses. And Communist propa-

PLAN ON RESERVOIRS

TENTON, N.J. (AP)—A formula proposing that Pennsylvania pay 71 per cent and New Jersey 29 per cent of the two states' share in building three reservoirs will be the subject of a public hearing Dec. 29 in Philadelphia.

A plan announced Saturday by the Delaware River Basin Commission calls for Pennsylvania to put up $63,780,000 for the Commission's first three water supply projects with New Jersey providing $26,380,000. The formula would be in effect for 58 years.

ganda of one sort or another is making headway. If the Communists' goal is chaos, it is far easier to achieve than stability.

One detects in the United States a weariness with African diplomacy. America still has friends among the more mature African leaders. The weariness with the others can lead to growing sentiment for concentrating U.S. efforts on countries where they will be welcomed.

MAY LEASE MANSION FOR SCRANTONS

HARRISBURG (AP)—The State is attempting to lease a new official mansion for Gov. Scranton and his family nearer to the city of Harrisburg and the State Capitol.

The site under negotiation is the estate-type home of Robert M. Mumma, Wormleysburg contractor and prominent area Republican, about five minutes away from the Capitol across the Susquehanna River.

Jack Conmy, Scranton's press secretary, said over the weekend the rent under current discussion is $1,000 a month, including full furnishings, for a four-year period.

MORE CONVENIENT

John W. Ingraham, Secretary of Administration, said the site is being sought to make the Capitol more convenient to Scranton, who now has to drive some 20 miles from the Governor's official residence at Indiantown Gap.

He called the Mumma home "peculiarly suited for this purpose in terms of size, accommodations and facilities."

The property also is located near Harrisburg Academy, where Peter Scranton, 10, goes to school.

SPEED ORDERED

Ingraham instructed state property and supplies secretary Richard M. Hornbeck to handle the lease arrangements as quickly as possible.

The Mumma house, situated on 3½ acres of land, was built 18 years ago. It contains a living room, dining room, family room, den and office on the first floor; five bedrooms and four baths on the second floor; and servants quarters and a children's playroom on the third floor.

The property also contains a four-car garage and a heated outdoor swimming pool with two bath houses and a snack bar.

The Indiantown Gap mansion has one less bedroom, smaller rooms and an unheated outdoor pool.

OLD MANSION SOLD

The present mansion and its facilities are owned by the state but Conmy said no plans have been made for its use as yet.

Pennsylvania's Governors have been without an in-town home since the building which had served as their family residence in the city was sold at public auction in 1960.

But even before that, former Govs. John Fine, 1951-1955, and George M. Leader, 1955-59, showed a preference for the Gap facilities as their family home. Governors before them had been using the Gap as a summer home.

A special committee has been established by the General State Authority to study site prospects for a new mansion for the Governor in Harrisburg.

Ingraham noted that it would probably be two years at best before the GSA can construct a new in-town residence.

EXPECT NEW BILL

LONDON (AP)—A bill abolishing the death penalty for murder is expected to pass the House of Commons tonight.

Seek Clues In Holdup Slayings

PHILADELPHIA (AP)—Police today sought clues in two holdup-slayings in which three men were killed in a span of 16 hours.

Max Blackman, 54, operator of the Excel Auto Supply Store, was killed with a shotgun in the presence of his 85-year-old father yesterday, police reported. Investigators said nervousness may have caused the gunman to shoot. They said nothing was taken after the shooting.

On Saturday night, police reported, Gus Holt, 67, and his brother, Samuel, 62, were shot to death in a $2 holdup in a variety store owned by a third brother, Harry, 72. They worked in the store part-time. Harry had gone to play bingo.

DOCTORS ON STRIKE

BUENOS AIRES, Argentina (AP)—Doctors in public health hospitals went on an indefinite strike for higher wages today.

Skeleton crews manned emergency wards, but the Medical Federation said they would be withdrawn Wednesday if the doctors' demands were not met.

CHARGED IN STABBING

PHILADELPHIA (AP)—Rosa Lee Davis, 30, will be given a hearing today in the fatal stabbing of her husband, Eugene. Police quoted Mrs. Davis as saying her husband came home early Sunday and a quarrel began over his late return.

OAKLAND, Calif. (AP)—The annual Christmas pageant of the Neighborhood Church in Oakland includes six sheep, and artificial clouds produced by a dry-ice process.

Santa Braves Many Hazards To Play Spirit Of Christmas

EDITOR'S NOTE—An Associated Press staffer decided to see what it was like to be a department store Santa Claus. Here's his report.

BALTIMORE (AP)—A department store Santa Claus wears a $100 suit, works out of the weather and makes extravagant promises for which he never will be called to account.

He sits on what can only be described as a throne, admired by children and smiled on benignly by old ladies.

But the work is not without its hazards, as I discovered when I sat in for two hours in a downtown emporium for the regular Santa Claus.

EXPENSIVE OUTFIT

As I dressed, the Santa supervisor quoted the price of the costume — $100 for the red velvet suit, another $100 for the white wig and whiskers and $22 for the black boots.

"Try to remember you're not only representing the store, but to the children you're the spirit of Christmas," the supervisor said. I said I'd try.

"Don't forget to give every one a balloon," he said.

The throne was surrounded by a squad of anxious children and impatient parents. "Ho, ho, ho," I said bravely, mounting the throne, "Merry Christmas."

At that a boy broke ranks and pounced on my lap. "I'm Randy," he said, pre-empting my first question.

"Watcha gonna bring me for Christmas?" he demanded.

"What would you like," I countered, trying to gain control of the interview.

"Are you really Santa Claus?" he asked. "Ho, ho, ho," I said defensively. "Cause if you are, how come you're askin' me what I want. Didn't you get my letter?" he said.

It was clear this boy did not wish me well.

BLAMES MAILS

"Santa gets so much mail," the spirit of Christmas explained, "that sometimes it's difficult to remember just who wants what. Now, why don't you refresh Santa's memory."

"You've forgotten," he accused, and burst into tears.

His mother dislodged him from my knee. He recaptured his composure long enough to whimper, "I wanna balloon."

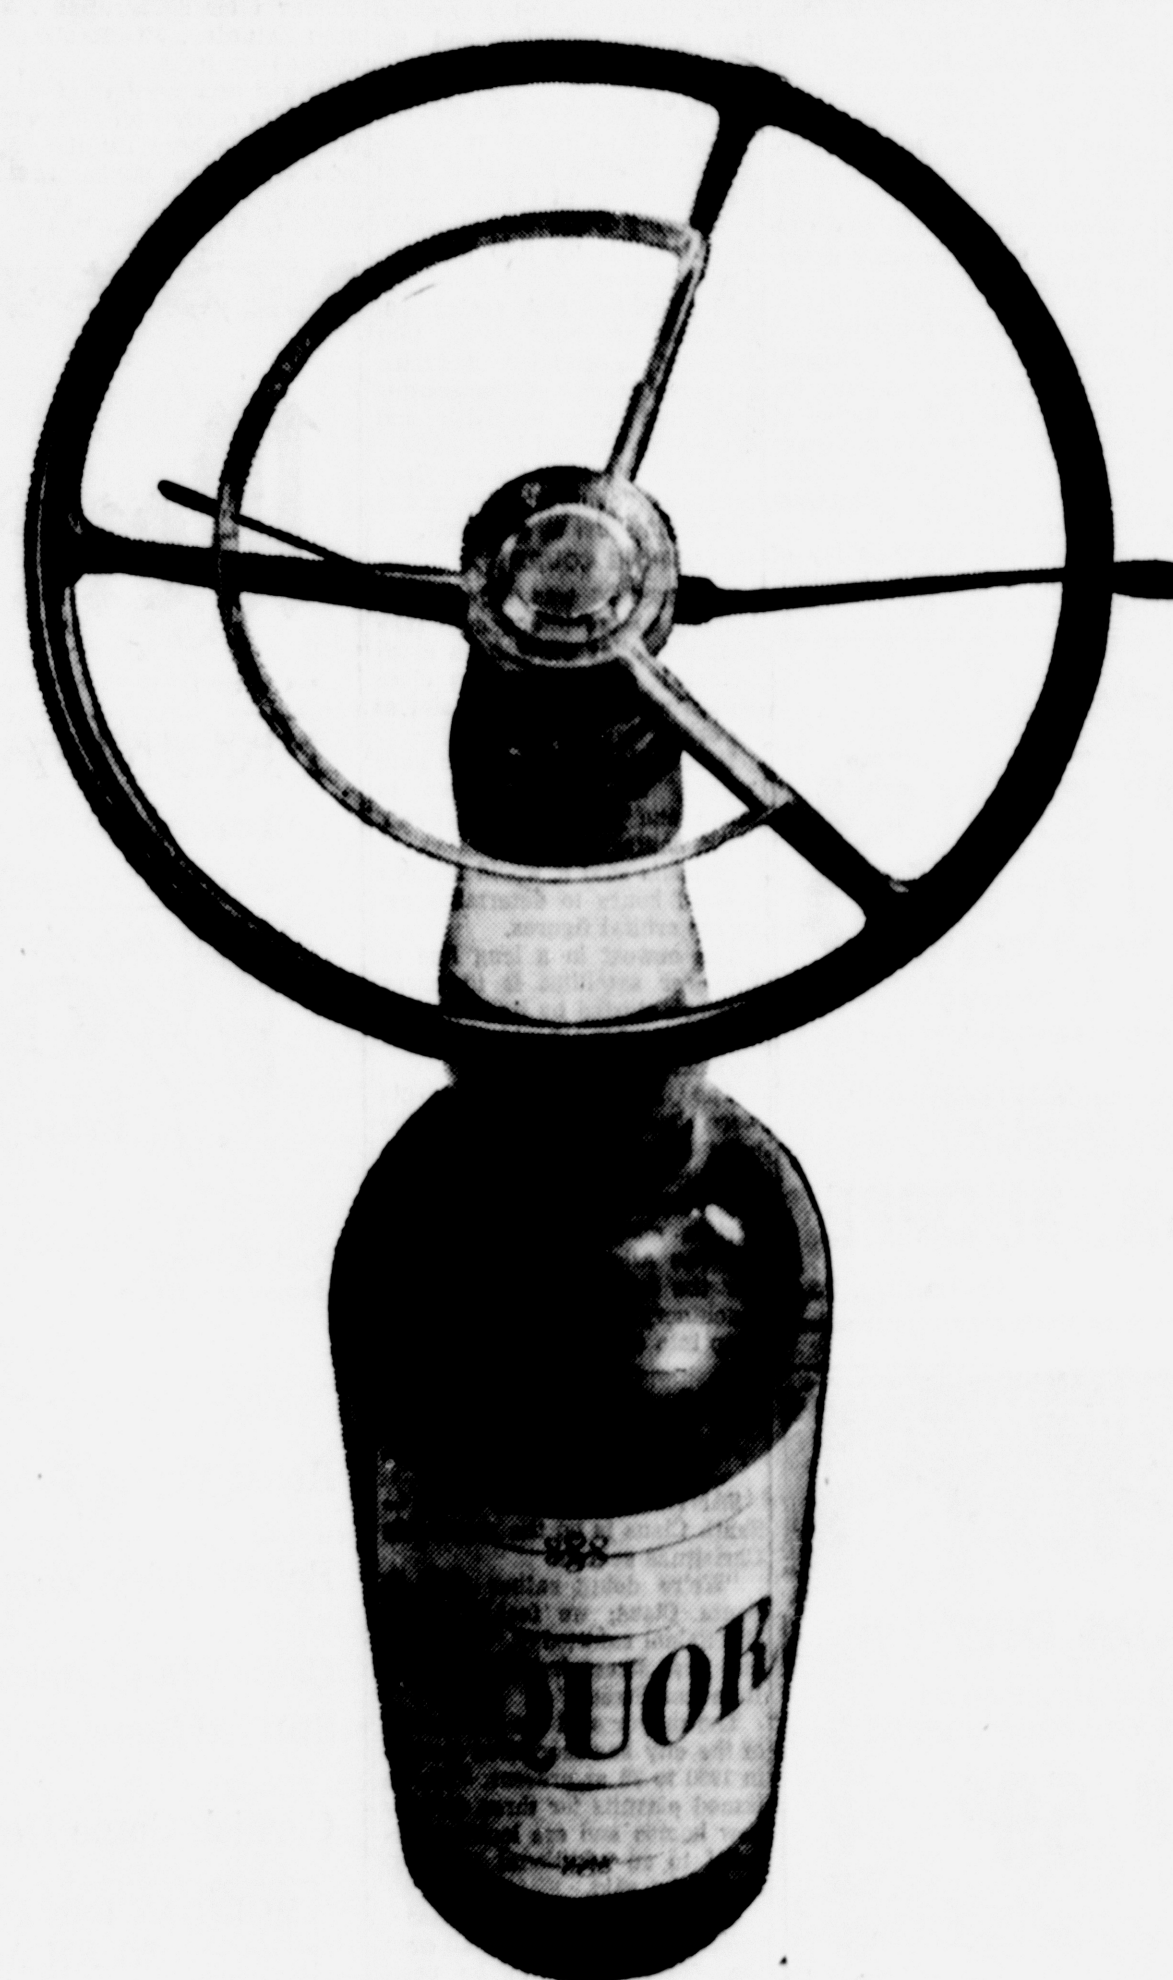

During a lull, I noticed a small boy watching from a distance. His clothes were patched and soiled. He was alone.

I encouraged him to come nearer and finally coaxed him onto my knee. We established that he was James and he was 7 years old. "Well, James," I said, "what would you like Santa to bring for Christmas?"

"A coat," said James. A sensible choice, I thought. "You like one like that?" I said, pointing to a rack of children's clothes off to the right.

"No, you don't understand," he said, "I want it for my mother. She needs a coat."

"I'll see what I can do," said Santa. "Wouldn't you like a balloon?"

White Northern Students Join Southern Negroes To Rebuild Burned Church

RIPLY, Miss. (AP) — On the muddy ruins of a Negro church at the edge of a cotton field, white college students with Negroes from Mississippi to rebuild a house of worship — a monument to their belief in brotherhood.

The college students and professors, who call themselves "Carpenters for Christmas," arrived Sunday from Oberlin College in Oberlin, Ohio. There were 26 in the first group; 6 more were expected today.

TRAVELED 800 MILES

They traveled nearly 800 miles, the final lap over muddy, treacherous red clay roads to the desolate place where Antioch Baptist Church had stood.

The frame building burned last Oct. 30 within hours after it was used for a civil rights meeting.

"We can start laying brick by Tuesday and start the framing Wednesday," said Burrell L. Scott, 40, a mason contractor from Cleveland, Ohio.

Scott, a Negro, flew to Memphis — about 70 miles to the northwest — and then drove to the church site which is about 10 miles from Ripley.

WILL WORK VACATION

The Oberlin group plans to work through the holidays.

"We have to be back in class Jan. 4," said dark-haired Marcia Aronoff, 20, Oberlin senior and spokesman for the group.

She is co-chairman of the Oberlin Action for Civil Rights organization. A sociology major, she is from Middletown, Ohio.

Attired in mud-smeared black boots, faded blue jeans and a red coat, she dug at the clay with a pick. She and the other students — and two professors — ignored a biting wind, near freezing temperatures and the mud.

OPEN FIKE

The sky was overcast. A clump of red oaks stood forlornly behind the church site. Several old church pews, blackened by the weather, had been arranged around a fire of scrap lumber and the students warmed themselves.

Marcia Aronoff was asked why the group chose this church to rebuild. "We sent some students down here to work with the Freedom Democratic party right before the election," she said. "There were 21 who came during a two-week period. Some of them were here at the rally the night the church burned."

DONATE LUNCH MONEY

The group hopes to have walls and a roof up by the end of the Christmas holidays. To help finance the project, the entire student body of 1,300 at Oberlin donated Friday's lunch money. Church meetings in Ohio and sale of Christmas cards helped raise funds.

Among the muddy workers were Dr. Paul Schmidt, head of the Oberlin philosophy department, and his wife Gail — who suggested the project.

CUBANS REPORT CIA AGENTS SHOT

MIAMI, Fla. (AP) — Three agents of the U.S. Central Intelligence Agency were executed by a firing squad for "crimes against the nation's integrity and stability," Havana Radio said today.

Other agents were sentenced to prison terms of one to 30 years, the radio said. It did not say how many others were involved.

The Miami-monitored broadcast identified the U.S. agents shot to death as Ricardo Ulloa Olivera, Daniel Ontero Camalier and Desiderio Valladares.

Ulloa and Montero were formerly in the Cuban militia, the radio said. It said Valladares was one of the leaders in what it called a "CIA necktie of espionage named the Western Unique Front."

Havana Radio said the CIA ring had been operating in Pinar del Rio province.

EX-LEGISLATOR DIES

HONOLULU (AP) — Funeral services were held Saturday for J. Howard Worrall, a native of Media, Pa., who was a former Hawaii legislator and retired president of the Hawaiian Broadcasting Co.

Worrall died last Tuesday of cancer in a Honolulu hospital. He was 79.

Santa Uses New Fire Truck

Irishtown firemen gave a Christmas gift to the whole community Sunday afternoon. The firemen's brand new 500-gallon pumper, 500-gallon tank fire truck, painted green, arrived and hauled Santa through the streets of the community before the annual Kiddies' Christmas party was held at the engine house. Some of the youngsters, with their gifts, are shown on the engine, along with Santa. Irishtown Fire Company officials said the truck, which joins another pumper and a service truck as the company's principal equipment, cost $13,000, of which $4,000 has been paid. Various activities will be held in the future to raise the additional $9,000 needed to pay for the vehicle. (Times photo)

RADIATION IN SPACE IS JOB OF SATELLITE

By HOWARD BEEDICT

CAPE KENNEDY, Fla. (AP) — The Explorer 26 satellite soared into orbit today to measure space radiation and the threat it poses to men and machinery flying deep into space.

The 101-pound windmill-shaped satellite shot aloft from Cape Kennedy at 4 a.m. aboard a towering Delta rocket which blazed brilliantly into the pre-dawn darkness.

The flight-control center announced an hour later that tracking information indicated all three stages of the booster had fired with precision and drilled the payload into space.

Launch director Robert Gray said that "everything seems to be working just as expected."

IN LOOPING COURSE

Explorer 26 was aimed at a looping course intended to take it 15,800 miles away from earth before it swings back as close as 200 miles at the low point of its orbit.

Because of the eccentric path sought, the satellite was to make one global circuit every seven hours.

Officials said it would require several hours to determine accurate orbital figures. The newest in a long line of Explorer satellites is to carry on work started by its predecessors in probing basic scientific mysteries of space.

The Explorer experiments were designed to provide the most extensive information yet on how high-energy radiation particles become trapped in the earth's magnetic field to form the Van Allen belt and the danger the belt poses to men and machinery flying future flights deep into space.

Man Acquitted In Murder Case

PHILADELPHIA (AP)—Louis John Stratford, 51, of Philadelphia, has been acquitted of first degree murder charges in the fatal shooting of his brother-in-law, Robert White, 50, of Lawrence, N.Y.

A jury of five women and seven men returned its verdict Sunday after deliberating since noon Saturday. Stratford's trial began Dec. 10.

He had been accused of shooting White on Oct. 26, 1963, when White came here for the celebration of his mother's 78th birthday. Stratford testified White had threatened him as a

DIES OF INJURIES

READING, Pa. (AP) — Ralph E. Schoener, 76, of Reading, former Berks County controller and former member of the Pennsylvania Legislature, died Sunday of injuries suffered in a two-car auto accident on Friday.

He was controller of Berks County from 1936 to 1952 and served in the legislature from 1923 to 1927.

FIRM RECORDS LOST IN FIRE

HARRISBURG (AP) — Fire caused an estimated $550,000 damage Sunday at a converted barn occupied by a Boston, Mass., engineering firm in nearby Silver Spring Twp.

James F. Smith, superintendent of Stone and Webster Engineering Corp., estimated the company's loss at a "half-a-million dollars" in records, surveying equipment, manuals and other related machinery.

Silver Spring Fire Chief Clyde Stone said the building was valued at $50,000.

Smith said he feared that company records on a 500,000-volt transmission line being plotted across the state might have been lost.

The records, containing some nine to 10 months of work, were stored in four filing cabinets which were hauled from the burning building. Stone said the fire, reported at 11:15 a.m., apparently was caused by a defective oil burner.

More than 70 firemen from six companies fought the flames before bringing it under control in two hours.

Send Xmas Money To Four Orphans

SHENANDOAH, Pa. (AP) — Four young orphans whose parents were killed in an auto accident here Dec. 8 have been sent a $1,600 money order.

Police, Boy Scouts and civic groups collected the money for Ronald Phares, 9, Diane, 8, Sherry, 5, and Ben Jr., 3. Their parents, Ben and Gloria Phares were killed when their car plunged 100 feet into an abandoned mine hole.

The children have been taken from Shenandoah to the home of their maternal grandparents, Mr. and Mrs. James H. Shillingburg, of Elk Garden, W.Va.

SANTA CLAUS, Ga. (AP) — Santa Claus is on the move this Christmas season.

The mayor said the population of the city has increased from 5 in 1960 to 28 at present. "We've issued permits for three or four new homes and are looking forward to an additional 12 to 61 soon," he said.

During the Christmas season, Salem said, letters from all over the world arrive to be postmarked.

IRS Probes Tax-Exempt Right Wing Organizations

WASHINGTON (AP) — The Internal Revenue Service has mounted a major drive against politically minded organizations that enjoy tax-exempt status—and most of the fire is being concentrated on outspoken right-wing groups.

An IRS spokesman said today the agency's rule against discussing individual cases also applies to organizations. However, the identity of a few of the organizations under investigation was learned from other sources.

RIGHT-WING GROUPS

They range from the tradition-steeped Daughters of the American Revolution to new organizations which have few followers outside their areas.

Why the emphasis on the right side of the political spectrum? "We believe we've already done a good job of weeding out the left-wing organizations," an IRS spokesman said. "The leftist outfits have been under surveillance for years. Also, we have more complaints on the ultra-conservatives."

In most cases, the organizations are accused of putting out political propaganda while wearing a philanthropic, religious or educational label.

Only a few of these organizations have any income which could be taxed, but their special tax status is highly prized. As long as they are classified as tax-exempt, their donors can deduct their contributions from their personal income tax.

The several million dollars that would be collected in taxes if these organizations lost their tax-exempt status would be small compared to the potential revenue that could come from another contemplated treasury move: a revision in the law to restrict the money-making operations of some foundations.

This move would be up to the drive on the political interest groups. A recommendation to Congress will come in the early months of 1965.

STEP UP PROBES

In the campaign against the use of a tax-exempt organization for political purposes, the IRS has stepped up the rate of examinations from 2,000 a year to 10,000.

Some groups under fire from IRS have said that if their tax exemption is removed, then the government should take similar action against the National Council of Churches and all groups that ever took a stand on any issue.

In reply, an IRS spokesman said, "the law states that a tax-exempt organization must devote a substantial part of its activities to charitable, educational, religious or similar activity. A tax-exempt organization is not supposed to try to influence legislation. Perhaps a good many organizations pass a resolution now and then but their main function is still non-political."

A congressional hearing uncovered an IRS crackdown on Life Line, an organization which has received several million dollars from oilman H. L. Hunt of Dallas to finance radio and television broadcasts.

Also, the Rev. Billy James Hargis of Tulsa, Okla., revealed that his organization, Christian Crusade, was removed from the tax-exempt list by IRS. He plans a court fight.

One of the better known right-wing organizations, the John Birch Society, is not an IRS target. It has never asked for tax-exempt status.

PA. TRAFFIC KILLED 12 IN WEEKEND

Columbia—Mrs. Hattie Kline, 58, and her mother, Mrs. Ivy Fry, 77, both of Wrightsville, York County, killed Saturday when the car in which they were riding collided with another auto that state police said was traveling in the wrong lane of Route 441 north of Columbia, Lancaster County.

Pittsburgh—Josephine Sgro, about 51, of Carnegie, killed Sunday in the collision of two cars on a slush-covered road in Collier Township, near Pittsburgh.

ASK MORE FUNDS

PHILADELPHIA (AP)—Pennsylvania Mental Health, Inc., a statewide citizens' group, has asked the state legislature to supplement the $15 million already allocated for mental health services.

In a letter to Gov. Scranton, Frederic D. Justin, president of PMH, said the group's needs are "immediate and urgent" and asked the state to appropriate an additional $8 million for state mental hospitals, $5 million for schools for the mentally retarded and $2 million for state aid programs.

Promises New Israeli Cabinet

JERUSALEM, Israeli Sector Eshkol says he expects to have a new Israeli government ready by Tuesday.

President Zaiman Shazar asked Eshkol Sunday night to form a new Cabinet as the candidate of the Mapai party, Israel's biggest. The new government probably will be the same as Eshkol's Cabinet which resigned last Monday over a dispute between the premier and former Premier David Ben-Gurion.

32 SENIORS WIN RHODES AWARD

SWARTHMORE, Pa. (AP) — Thirty-two seniors from colleges across America have won Rhodes Scholarships and are eligible to attend Oxford University, England, for two years of advanced study.

The 51st group of scholars-elect—from 22 universities and colleges and 25 states—was announced Sunday by Courtney Smith, American secretary of the Rhodes Scholarships and president of Swarthmore College.

The group includes William W. (Bill) Bradley, Princeton University's All-American basketball player and member of the U.S. championship Olympic basketball team.

Bradley, a student in history and government at Princeton, is preparing for a career in politics. The scholarships were established in the seventh will of Cecil John Rhodes, a British administrator and financier in South Africa. Rhodes directed his trustees to set up two groups of scholarships, one from the British Colonies and one from the United States.

Young Sledder Dies In Surgery

PITTSBURGH (AP)—Robert Vogan, 11, died over the past weekend during surgery that followed a sledding accident. Authorities said he suffered a broken wrist and jaw when he slid hit a parked car. An autopsy had been ordered.

MAN IS HELD FOR CRUELTY

BOYERTOWN, Pa. (AP) — John Dierolf, owner of a nearby animal farm, faces a hearing at an undetermined date on a charge of cruelty to animals.

Dierolf was charged Saturday and posted $100 bond before Boyertown Justice of the Peace Earl H. Keim.

Authorities charged that hundreds of cats, dogs and rabbits were improperly housed and fed at Dierolf's farm, three miles west of the Boyertown Pike.

The farm supplies animals for medical research. Search warrants were issued Saturday at the request of Frank McMahon, director of the U.S. Humane Society.

McMahon says he will go to Harrisburg today to ask for a grand jury investigation of what he called Pennsylvania's cruel traffic in laboratory animals for medical research.

Pick Phila. Band For Inaugural

HARRISBURG (AP) — The Cardinal Dougherty High School Band of Philadelphia will represent Pennsylvania at President Johnson's inauguration Jan. 20 in Washington, D.C.

Democratic State Chairman Otis B. Morse said over the weekend that Johnson was "favorably impressed" when he heard the band during a June visit to Philadelphia and then again in August during the Democratic National Convention.

The band, representing the largest Catholic high school in the nation, has 120 musicians, a 15-man colorguard, eight standard-bearers and a drum major.

Stricken As He Helps Companion

WILMINGTON, Del. (AP)—A 55-year-old textile plant employee died of a heart attack while attempting to aid a fellow-worker whose clothes were aflame.

It was first reported that the victim, Francis Haigh, 55, of Wilmington, burned to death in the accident Friday night. But over the weekend, Dr. Rafael Alzamora, assistant state medical examiner, said Haigh suffered a heart attack.

Warren Miner, 44, of Wilmington, the other employee, was reported in critical condition from burns. Miner's clothing caught fire when he struck a match to light a cigarette, firemen said, in a locker room at the Joseph Bancroft and Sons Co. fiber clothing plant in nearby Rockland.

They said he apparently had some chemicals on his clothing.

YOUNG GUNMAN TRIES SUICIDE AFTER SPREE

WILKES-BARRE, Pa. (AP)—A former West Pittston man, sought for questioning in connection with robbery and kidnapping charges, apparently shot himself in the head early today in a Wilkes-Barre diner, police reported.

Dell Andres Salerno, 22, was taken to Wilkes-Barre General Hospital where he underwent surgery. His condition was described as critical.

Police said Salerno had served time in a Monroe County, Pa., jail for burglary.

Police charged Salerno beat up a woman near Henryville, Pa., on Thursday and then allegedly forced a taxi driver in East Stroudsburg, Pa., to drive him to Newark, N.J.

In Newark on Saturday night, police said, Salerno forced another cab driver at gunpoint to take him to Kern, N.J.

CONTINUED SPREE

There, police said, the driver, Philip Feins of Hillside, N.J., fled from the cab and Salerno drove it to Jersey City.

Jersey City police said Salerno was involved in a minor accident and produced a license identifying himself as Robert Plattenburg, of East Stroudsburg, the taxi driver he was said to have kidnapped Thursday. Salerno abandoned the cab and stole a car from a man at Gunpoint, police said.

Salerno allegedly struck Carole Stewart, 21, on the head with a gun after firing shots at her Thursday. Salerno earlier had forced Miss Stewart into his car police said. She fled from the vehicle on a country road, police said.

The Los Angeles Dodgers are high on John Purdin who broke into the majors this fall with a 2-0 two-hit victory over the Cubs. On the final day he beat Houston 11-1.

THE CHRISTMAS STORY

by Fulton Oursler

Chapter 4

NO DREAMS TONIGHT

At the close of the day's work Joseph sat in the back of his shop and emptied a palmful of coins from a crock taken down from a tall shelf. Ever since he had first seen Mary he had saved every mite against his wedding day, which would not be long.

"Almost enough for everything," he congratulated himself. "Tonight I will tell the family that we do not have to wait any more."

At the turning of the lane was the house of Joachim and Anna, white dome ghostlike in the sky. At one side of it ran a staircase that led to the roof and, looking up there Joseph saw Mary. She was collecting dates and figs that had been spread out to dry in the hot sun. Knowing his footsteps, she straightened up and waved her hand.

Joseph seated himself beside Joachim and plunged at once into his business. He had saved his money, he had improved the living quarters behind the house, he was ready to buy a goat and hens and a rooster; he wanted his wife. Why should there be any delay?

"NO SENSE IN WAITING"

"I will not stand in your way," said Mary's mother. "I know now that you love Mary and that she loves you. There is really no sense in waiting. Have you fixed a date in your mind?"

"I want to marry her yesterday," jested Joseph, and they all laughed. "But no, I have not fixed any date. I want to talk with Mary after supper tonight. I would like it better that way."

Later, in the damp darkness of the Nazareth road, Joseph and Mary strolled and talked. It was late when they were ready to say good night, but they had come to a decision. Within three months they would be married. Joseph would have liked it earlier but Mary pointed out that there was still sewing to do and a few more shekels her father wanted to accumulate, she knew, to fill out her modest dowry.

Early the next morning Joseph awoke to know that something had gone amiss. He heard a pounding on the door and his name being shouted. As he opened sleepy eyes he beheld Joachim standing, pale and distraught, distracted hands uplifted.

"Peace be unto you, Joachim," Joseph muttered. "What is it? Tell me, what is wrong?"

"The Lord be with you, Joseph," groaned the father, laying a heavy hand on Joseph's shoulder. "Listen, my son. Mary has disappeared."

A GREAT CHANGE
Mary had fled Nazareth because within five minutes after she had said good night to her beloved, her life, her body and soul, had undergone a change.

It was an experience shattering to the very roots of her being. Without one instant's preparation she had walked into it, immediately after that tender good night at the gate.

Feeling a little chill, for the night was damp, Mary had crossed the lower floor inside the house and mounted to the inner terrace. As she went up the steps to the platform she realized that she was not alone. A tall figure was standing near the farther wall!

A stranger. An odd and altogether different stranger! Because he seemed to stand in light where there was no lamp, and a kind of silvery mist enveloped him as if the light were his cap and gown. Mary opened her mouth to speak, to demand who he was and what he wanted there, but he anticipated her with an unexpected greeting.

"Hail, Mary!"

"FULL OF GRACE"

The voice was kind and fathomlessly deep; such a voice as Mary had never heard before — bass and yet tender.

"Full of grace!" the voice continued.

Hail, Mary, full of grace! She felt embarrassed and even more frightened.

"The Lord is with you. Blessed are you among women. Fear not, Mary."

She bowed her head. She knew she could trust this deep and tender voice. She closed her eyes and listening to the astounding words this stranger was speaking. She had found grace with God. She could conceive in her womb and bring forth a son.

She too! That was akin to the message that had come to Zachary for Elizabeth. Cousin Elizabeth was to have a son and his name must be John.

"And you shall call his name Jesus!"

Her mind was a place of wild, birdlike thoughts; yet she must listen to all that the stranger continued to tell her: Her son Jesus was to have that throne of David, his father—

"And of all his kingdom there shall be no end."

SEES HIS WINGS

"How shall this be done?" Mary asked in a whisper. "Seeing I know not a man?"

He took a step nearer and she saw the folded wings and knew him for what he was.

His voice lower and deeper still:

"The Holy Ghost shall come unto you. The power of the Most High shall overshadow you and therefore also the Holy which shall be born of you shall be called the Son of God."

Mary felt stifled, suffocated, as she heard these incredible words. She to be the mother of a son who would be called the Son of God?

The voice of the stranger was lowered into an intimate whisper:

"Your cousin Elizabeth also conceived a son. In her old age! This is the sixth month with her that is called barren. Because with God nothing shall be impossible!"

This was the reality she needed. For the angel had spoken truth as she knew it. It was true about Elizabeth. Well, then . . .

She looked up at him plaintively, her eyes half closed, her words coming so softly that she could barely hear herself speak. "Behold the handmaid of the Lord. Be it done unto me according to your word."

WEPT AND PRAYED

As if by incantation the angel vanished. And Mary crossed the floor and sank to her knees and lay upon her pallet and closed her eyes and wept and prayed. Too much to understand! She wanted to scream for Anna and throw herself into those strong, stout arms and cry to her mother what had just happened. But she could not bring herself, even in the first agony of that hysteria, to risk certain disbelief. They would say she had imagined this thing because Elizabeth was having a child and Zachary had said he saw an angel.

Mary could not sleep. She stole up from her bed after two hours of restlessness; she wrote her mother a note, made herself a bundle, and set off alone down the long road.

There was one other person in the world to whom she felt she must first confide the experience.

She was walking to Cousin Elizabeth.

DICK BUTKUS OUTSTANDING '64 LINEMAN

By THE ASSOCIATED PRESS

Dick Butkus, the 6-foot-4, 250-pound linebacker from Illinois who won All-America honors for the second straight year, was named the outstanding lineman of the 1964 college football season in the annual Associated Press poll today.

The Illini star recently signed by the Chicago Bears of the National Football League, collected 53 votes in the balloting by 125 writers and broadcasters. Steve DeLong, All-America linebacker from Tennessee, was second with 12 votes, followed by Jack Snow, Notre Dame's stellar end, with nine.

Butkus made or assisted on 132 tackles in nine Illinois games. On one series of downs against UCLA he made the tackle on the first two downs and intercepted a flat pass on the third. He also played center in key short-yardage situations.

Pete Elliott, the Illinois coach, called Butkus "the finest player I ever coached." And the big linebacker was additionally praised by these comments by voters participating in the AP poll.

"He is perhaps the greatest linebacker ever" and "he was an outstanding all-around player with a mediocre team." The Illini won six games and lost three.

SANTA and the SINGING TURTLE

Synopsis: The Snowman succeeds in fixing George's jaw, but, when the turtle rushes to warn Santa of his danger, Womp grabs both him and the Snowman and takes them off into the woods.

CHAPTER FIFTEEN THE FIRE

Womp carried the turtle and the Snowman into the woods. George squeaked for help and the Snowman hollered through his nose, but no one could hear them. Santa was having lunch in the Fairy Queen's palace and all the little fairies and pixies and Storybook folk were so busy chattering they could not have heard a clap of thunder.

"W-what are you going to do with us?" asked the Snowman plaintively. It was difficult for him to talk because Womp had such a tight hold of his carrot nose.

"PLAY MY TUNE"

"Leave you in the woods," said Womp, "so there will be no interruptions while I play my tune for the Music Festival!"

"But can't we hear you play?" quavered the Snowman, hoping to flatter the manwitch.

George swung his head around and blurted, "If we heard him we would perish! The tune he plays will put Santa and all of Fairyland to sleep for a hundred years! He told me so himself!"

"That is the reason you can't come to the performance," said Womp. "You know too much."

"You can't stop us!" said the Snowman heatedly.

"But I can," replied Womp. "And you will have a fate worse than Santa himself!"

With that he set George down upside down between two rocks and said, "You will stay there forever because you can't get on your feet again."

The turtle thrashed his feet and his head and his tail but he could not flip himself over again. To make matters worse, the more he struggled the deeper he wedged himself between the two rocks.

Then Womp pushed the Snowman into a nearby well that

The manwitch threw his lit match on the ground.

once held fairy water and now smoke that swept across him. "Help!" he gasped. "Help!"

"That will hold you," said Womp coldly.

SLIPPERY SIDES

It was true, because sides of the well were slippery and the Snowman's fingers were made of snow. Everytime he tried to climb out of the well he slid back to the bottom: with an awful crash.

The manwitch went off and left them but before he went he lit his pipe and threw the match on the ground. The match was still lit and it flickered in the dry leaves among the rocks. Womp stared at the tiny flame thoughtfully. Finally he shrugged his shoulders and returned to the Festival.

The Snowman shouted from the bottom of the well. "Don't worry, George! We'll get out of this! Something will happen. It always does."

TURTLE WAS BUSY

The turtle was too busy to answer. He twisted and turned and beat on the rocks with his upside-down head. "Have to warn Santa," he muttered over and over. "Have to warn Santa!"

He could hear the fairy folk leaving the palace and taking their places in the Queen's garden for the afternoon Festival. Soon Womp would begin to play his flute.

"George," called the Snowman cheerfully. "Someone will be along to help us by and by. Don't worry."

EYES NEARLY POP

George raised his head and looked wildly around as though by some miracle he might really see someone coming to help. What he saw instead caused his eyes to nearly pop from his head. He opened his mouth to warn the Snowman but only a thin high shriek came out.

"Ah, George, your voice is the very best," said the Snowman. "You surely would have won the Festival if you'd only had the chance!"

"Fire!" shouted George, making his voice work at last. "The brush is on fire! It's all around me! In a minute I'll be in it!"

He gasped and coughed in the

MANY LOSERS WILL GET JOBS IN HARRISBURG

By JACK LYNCH

HARRISBURG (AP) — Sometimes it doesn't hurt to lose elections.

Politicians have a way of taking care of favored members of "the Club" who have fallen from public grace or who have otherwise been forced out of elective office.

At least eight senators and representatives given the heave-ho at the polls or sacrificed upon the altar of reapportionment already have secured good positions in the Legislature and state government or are ticketed for top jobs.

Others are expected to line up something before too long to keep them out of the unemployment line.

PREFER OLD JOBS

Given a choice, most, if not all, of them would prefer to stay in the Legislature with its prestige, king-sized pension plan and other fringe benefits.

But at least they will continue to have a place at the outer rim and the salaries aren't bad. Some will get considerably more than a legislator's $9,000 annual stipend.

Former Sen. Martin L. Murray, Luzerne County Democrat whose seat was eliminated in the 1963 reapportionment, is slated to become director of the Legislative Reference Bureau at $15,000 a year. He will succeed former Rep. Edwin W. Tompkins, Cameron County Republican, who got the job two years ago after being defeated for reelection.

PLANS FOR TAYLOR

Sen. M. Harvey Taylor, Harrisburg Republican, whose 18 years as Senate president pro tempore probably set an unbeatable record, is reported in line as the state's chief insurance broker at $15,000 a year, plus expenses of about $3,000.

Rep. Anthony J. Petrosky, D-Westmoreland, also defeated in the primary, will become chief clerk of the House at $12,000.

Rep. Marion L. Munley, Lackawanna County Democrat, will become House secretary at $11,500.

Petrosky and Munley will replace former Reps. R. J. Stimel, R-Lehigh, and W. W. Waterhouse, R-Erie, who were defeated in past elections.

Two former Democratic House members, Harry Kramer of Allegheny County, a reapportionment victim, and Benjamin Long of Philadelphia, onetime chief clerk, are reported under consideration to succeed S. Edward Moore as parliamentarian.

NEW POSITION

Rep. Ralph J. Down, R-Mercer, immediate past chairman of the House Highways Committee, can save his defeat at the polls in his new job as director of the highways department's contractor prequalification section.

the season. And there's many a gaiety you can fashion for yourself in minutes, with materials at hand or no farther than the dime store. As ideas:

• A zippy one for gad-about—Wreath the cuffs of storm boots with fake holly. Simply fasten springs in close formation with mending tape.

• A festive tote for Mrs. S. Claus—Spray a basket with red enamel and the handle with candy-striped gift tie.

• A gay note for the Misses Claus—A red string tie to wear with a white or pink shirt. Make with a yard of one-inch velvet ribbon; fold in half and whip stitch edges.

• For a home girl, this jollity—Tint a white apron deep green and festoon the hem with scarlet ball fringe. Ensemble with matching earrings, created of balls snipped from the fringe and pasted to earring backs.

• For party girls, a gala kerchief—Just tack tiny Christmas tree balls to a 50-inch length of net, and you've got it. Pink balls on white net or gold on black net makes an especially spirited scheme.

• For lovelies everywhere on Christmas morning—Bells on your toes, jingle bells taped in clusters to your house slippers. Very Merry, Merry!

Police Charge Man In Bank Robbery

PHILADELPHIA (AP) — Police arrested Robert Mason, 27, of Philadelphia, Saturday and charged him with committing an $11,000 holdup at the West Philadelphia branch of the First Pennsylvania Banking and Trust Co. on Dec. 9.

Police said Mason was the man who held a gun on tellers at the bank while a female accomplice vaulted a railing and scooped up the money. Police said Mason had been identified by an off-duty fireman who was in the bank at the time of the holdup. They said the woman was still at large.

WILKES-BARRE, Pa. (AP)—The FBI arrested three men Saturday and charged them with taking $500 from the Plains Branch of the First National Bank of Wilkes-Barre last Dec. 13.

Taken into custody were Salvatore Leis Buscemi, 22, of Pittston, Vaughn G. Kotter, 20, of Wilkes-Barre, and an unidentified teen-ager.

Buscemi and Kotter were held in Luzerne County Prison for a hearing before a U.S. commissioner in Scranton.

The FBI said the trio smashed through a rear window of the bank and took a tray of coins worth at least $500.

Former Mayor Recalls Christmas Of '44 As Germans Pounded Yanks In Bastogne

EDITOR'S NOTE — It was just before the last Christmas of World War II. The Allies were on their way to victory in Europe. Then the Germans revived to fight the Battle of the Bulge. The way it went in Bastogne is told in this story written for The Associated Press by the man who at the time was burgomaster—mayor — of the Belgian town.

By LEON JACQMIN

BASTOGNE, Belgium (AP) — In that December 20 years ago, snow had been falling thick on this capital of the rugged Ardennes Forest area, covering the gray stone and blue slate of the town. The snow coated the black pines on the hills and high plateaus nearby.

Terrified women, children and cattle were sheltering in cellars or stables across Bastogne and on surrounding farms.

Then tracer bullets and exploding shells replaced the Bethlehem star in Bastogne's sky.

Seventy-two thousand U.S. soldiers were to spill their blood in these tragic Christmas days marking Bastogne's name in golden letters — beside Stalingrad, Alamein and Caen — in the history of German defeat.

PEACE SHATTERED

GIs had liberated the previous September. We were preparing to celebrate our first Christmas in peace with them when, on Dec. 17, a rumor spread across town that the Germans had launched a counteroffensive near Clervaux, a Luxembourg town 17 miles away.

Our first reaction was disbelief. How could Germans rout this powerful U.S. Army, equipped with the most modern materiel?

But anxiety grew with the hours, as guns grew louder.

CUT ELECTRIC POWER

It was Sunday and we went to church for an evening benediction celebrating the return of the clocks, removed by the Germans. Before the ceremony could start, U.S. military authorities decreed a curfew and power was cut.

That was the first of many candlelit evenings.

On Monday, Dec. 18, countless tanks, trucks and half-tracks rumbled across the town on their way to the nearby battlefront. First Luxembourg refugees appeared, coming from Wiltz and Clervaux, announcing SS troops had just recaptured the latter town.

SHELLING STARTED

The first shells fell at 4 p.m. Reinforcements of the 101st Airborne Division took positions in the town during the night.

We were shelled three times next day. A shell hit the Town Hall's front wall. U.S. 105mm howitzers reacted.

Belgian police crisscrossed the town, asking the population to take shelter in cellars. The noise of the battle came louder and louder. Germans were at Noville, six miles from here, then at Neffe, a little more than two miles away.

The next day, Dec. 20, Germans attacked in force in Neffe, Mont and Bizory. They could not advance, but in Foy, three miles from here, the Americans had to retreat.

MOVE INTO CELLARS

Thursday, Dec. 21 we were completely encircled. The battle was raging, as close to 4,000 people of Bastogne started a week-long siege in cold and dark cellars.

Above our heads, shells exploded as houses crumbled. The 101st was fighting but ammunition was getting scarce. Officers spared supplies as skies refused to clear, forbidding any air drop or even support.

I had organized a group of volunteers to distribute food. A makeshift bakery and butcher shop had been set up at the seminary. People could leave shelters two hours a day to collect food. The last 750 pounds of war-relief biscuits were distributed as U.S. soldiers fired their last cartridges.

PLANES DROP FOOD

Day broke with a great hope on Dec. 22. Haze was dissolving, skies were clearing. At 9:30 a.m. a muffled sound was heard. It grew and a cloud of bombers flew over the town. Hundreds of multicolor parachutes opened, shining as they dropped 140 tons of food, ammunition and drugs. The whole population rushed out of shelters to admire the show.

GIs and civilians were shouting, crying, kissing each other, laughing. Wild enthusiasm had seized the besieged soldiers and civilians who forgot their tragic situation, as if Santa Claus was coming down to rescue them.

McAULIFFE'S REPLY

On that memorable Friday, Gen. Anthony C. McAuliffe gave his historic "Nuts" reply to the Germans when they asked for the town's unconditional surrender under threat of razing it. Retaliation was terrible. The fighting renewed, twice more violent, and on Christmas Eve, the Luftwaffe came to bomb the town. The whole district from the girls' college to the Rue de la Halle was afire.

PATTON ARRIVES

As feeble Christmas carols rose in the desperate night, bombs destroyed the Red Cross building, killing 27 U.S. soldiers and a Belgian nurse.

Gen. George S. Patton arrived Dec. 28, breaking the siege. But German air raids resumed Dec. 29-30, destroying more than a hundred houses, as most of the population fled the burning town.

A thousand people remained as shells continued to fall until Jan. 15. Only 150 of the 1,200 houses were undamaged. But, thanks to discipline and courage, Bastogne lost only 13 citizens.

UN Rejects Red Air Violation

PANMUNJOM, Korea (AP) — The United Nations Command rejected a Communist charge that one of its aircraft violated North Korean air space.

U.S. Rear Adm. Paul P. Blackburn Jr. said the U.N. Command investigated the alleged incident and found the charges were groundless.

The Communists had claimed that an "RB50 type" aircraft of the U.N. Command had flown over the demilitarized zone escorted by two F86 jets last Dec. 4.

REBELS IGNORE RED CROSS TIE

GENEVA (AP) — The International Red Cross Committee said today the top leaders of the Congolese rebellion declared they knew nothing of the Geneva Red Cross Convention and did not consider themselves bound by it.

Christophe Gbenye and Gaston Soumialot made the statements to Red Cross Delegate Dr. Jean-Maurice Rubly, a Swiss, who landed at Stanleyville Sept. 25 in a white-painted Red Cross plane, a committee report said.

It added: Dr. Rubly's effort to get Gbenye to release white hostages failed. The rebels said the removal of hostages from Albertville was followed by a government bombardment of the city. They feared the same in Stanleyville.

Vatican radio said Friday it had information that 320 Roman Catholic and Protestant missionaries were in rebel hands near Stanleyville 10 days ago. "Hopes of saving them are very thin," the broadcast said.

See Little Chance For Capital Tax

SANTIAGO, Chile (AP) — President Eduardo Frei would like to use the revenue from a planned capital tax for agrarian reform but prospects of getting the tax through congress seem dim.

The capital tax bill would be imposed on personal assets of all persons living in Chile and would range from 1.5 to 3 per cent annually. Business firms would range from 1.5 to 3 per cent annually. Business firms would not be included.

Frei's government has successfully concluded an agreement to become a major stockholding partner of the U.S.-owned Anaconda and Kennecott companies. Both are copper mining concerns.

DEATH

MOUNT VERNON, N.Y. (AP) — Dr. Victor F. Hess, 81, Nobel prize winner in 1936 for his early recognition of cosmic rays, died Thursday night. He was a professor of physics at Fordham University for 23 years.

Americans Watch Ailing British Pound Sterling

By SAM DAWSON
AP Business News Analyst
NEW YORK (AP) — The international financial doctors have taken the British pound sterling off the critical list but not off the ailing list.

And its continuing basic weakness still affects America's own financial status and planning — in world trade, interest rates, balance of payments, the world price of gold, even the worries besetting the stock market.

A $3 billion 1-nation bailout fund halted a serious run on the pound and since then its exchange value has rallied. But the fundamental ailment — too much outgo of pounds for imports and too small a return flow of pounds for British exports — continues.

The uneasiness over the pound's future shows up in that very market — the futures market.

SHARE PRICE

The spot price for pounds is $2.79 (against the official $2.80). But for 90-day delivery speculators or businessmen hedging their activities can buy the pound for $2.77.

The thinking is that the pound might still fall to that level, which is below the $2.78 at which the Bank of England is ordered to support it. So the fear of devaluation is diminished but not silenced.

The United States becomes involved both in furnishing the largest share of the $3 billion fund the Bank of England could use to bolster the pound against any day-by-day runs, and in the methods which Britain is taking to try to cure the real ailment — its balance of payments deficit.

DELAY CUTS DEFICIT

The latest move — postponement of the repayment of $138.1 million in interest and principal due the United States this month on postwar loans — cuts the British deficit by that much.

It also increases America's own balance of payments deficit.

Estimates of this year's U.S. deficit, a bit in excess of $2 billion, were based on expectations of British payment, along with many other items. Postponement of payment will raise the U.S. deficit by $138 million. This may seem a small amount. But the deficit is the sum of many small amounts.

The United States has been affected directly by other measures the British government has taken in the last two months to fight off its financial ailment.

First it slapped a 15 per cent surcharge on most of its imports. Americans may see some of their British market shrink.

BOOSTED LENDING CHARGE

Then the Bank of England boosted its lending charge to 7 per cent from 5 per cent. The U.S. comparable charge, the Federal Reserve discount rate, was quickly raised to 4 per cent from 3½ per cent. Other short-term interest rates in America rose, but so far the government has discouraged any increase in long-term interest rates here.

Uneasiness about the future of the pound, and perhaps even of the dollar, is blamed for the recent rise in the price of gold.

It had been selling on the London free market at around $35.08 an ounce (roughly the U.S. official price). Now it has climbed close to $35.13 cents an ounce, the highest point since the 1962 Cuban crisis. A premium price for gold can carry the threat of another drain on the U.S. reserves, which so far this year has all but halted.

SEE SOLUTION

Close ties of the dollar and the pound as the world's standards of foreign exchange keep Britain's troubles close to American financial markets. And some of the uncertainty that still persists is credit with causing at least part of the weakness that has plagued the American stock markets through most of December.

Most financial authorities express confidence that Britain will work out of this crisis as it has out of previous ones since World War II. It's how she does it, and how long it takes, that Americans are watching.

RECESS TALKS ON STEEL PACT FOR HOLIDAYS

PITTSBURGH (AP) — United Steelworkers President David J. McDonald wished R. Conrad Cooper, chief steel industry negotiator, a "Merry Christmas, Coop," and the first round of steel contract talks ended on a tone of optimism.

The talks, which started Tuesday in Pittsburgh, recessed Friday until Jan. 5.

Both sides—representatives of the USW and 11 major steel producers—said talks were conducted in a friendly atmosphere and were fruitful.

"They've been extremely good discussions in good humor, mostly," said Cooper, also a vice president of U.S. Steel Corp. McDonald, who was at Cooper's side during a news conference, nodded agreement.

McDonald attributed the cordial atmosphere to the Human Relations Committee, a union-management group formed after the long 1959-60 strike to keep lines of communication open when there are no current negotiations.

Though the union has said it wants higher pay for its members, job security and work rule changes, neither side has specified what the negotiators are discussing.

The talks this past week dealt with local plant level issues. The national contract is scheduled to be reopened Jan. 1 when the focus will shift to the industry-wide issues of wages, pensions and security.

A Bit Of History About Early Settlers

By S. F. M. MacPHERSON

THE CHAMBERLIN FAMILY
The rather sparse genealogical data on the Chamberlin family of the Lower Marsh Creek is continued at this time. There is a tradition to the effect, although official documented proof is lacking, that Lewis Chamberlin (1761-1825) took part in the Revolutionary struggle. This is very possible, all things considered, and may well be true.

4. "In memory of — Ann Chamberlin — wife of Lewis Chamberlin — Born November 21, 1858 — Died December 20, 1913 — Aged 56 years."

Note: — Adams Centinel, Wednesday, January 12, 1814 — "Departed this life on Monday morning, December 20, 1813, in the 56th year of her age, Mrs. Ann Chamberlin, wife of Mr. Lewis Chamberlin, of Franklin Township, this County."

5. "Sacred — to the memory of — Rachel Chamberlin — the second wife of — Lewis Chamberlin — Died October 16, 1848 — Aged 73 years."

Note: — Adams Centinel,

there is sufficient space — but if so the graves were never marked or the stones have long since disappeared.

In addition to the items already given from the "Adams Centinel" (later the "Star and Sentinel") the following, pertaining to the Chamberlin family, was published under the dates given.

5. Wednesday, December 29, 1808 —

"Married, December 21, 1810, by the Rev. William Paxton, of this County, Mr. George McLaughlin to Miss Eleanor, daughter of Mr. Clayton Chamberlin, all of this County."

Note: — Eleanor (Chamberlin) McLaughlin, the daughter of Clayton Chamberlin, was evidently a member of the Lower Marsh Creek Presbyterian church. The Rev. William Paxton, the pastor, performed her marriage ceremony and her father is buried in the churchyard.

6. Wednesday, October 3, 1810 —
"Died, at his farm in Reading Township, this County, on the 25th of September, 1810, in the 69th year of his age, Mr. John Chamberlin, Esq. He has left his wife and one child to lament his loss."

may have been a brother of Lewis and Clayton Chamberlin — but — again, there is no proof. One bit of evidence points in that direction — "John" appeared to be a family name.

28th, 1814, by the Rev. David McConaughy, of this County. Mr. David Chamberlin, of Franklin Township, this County, to Miss Catharine Cosnon (?), of Mountpleasant Township, this County."

Note: — David Chamberlin was a son of Lewis and Ann Chamberlin. His stepmother, Rachel Chamberlin, died at his home in 1848.

8. Wednesday, October 19, 1814 —

"Married, Thursday, October 13, 1814, by the Rev. Charles G. McLean, of this County, Mr. Joseph Chamberlin to Miss Margaret McNay, the daughter of Mr. John McNay, all of this County."

Note: — Joseph Chamberlin was probably a son of Lewis and Ann Chamberlin and a brother of David Chamberlin. His wedding ceremony was performed by the minister of the old "Hill" church.

9. Wednesday, March 1, 1815 —
"Married, on Tuesday, February 21, 1815, by the Rev. William Paxton, of this County, Mr. John Cownover to Miss Polly Chamberlin, all of this County."

Note: — Polly (Chamberlin) Cownover could have been a daughter of either Lewis or Clayton Chamberlin. Both were members of the Lower Marsh

Creek Presbyterian Church. 10. Wednesday, July 1, 1818 —
"Married, at Carlisle, Pennsylvania, on June 29th, 1818, by the Rev. George Duffield, Rev. Jeremiah Chamberlin, of Bedford, Pennsylvania, to Miss Rebecca Blaine, of Carlisle, Pennsylvania."

Note: — It must be confessed that the Rev. Jeremiah Chamberlin is an unidentified branch on the family tree.

11. Wednesday, March 20, 1822 —
"Married, Thursday, February 28, 1822, by the Rev. Charles G. McLean, of this County, Mr. John Zimmerman to the amiable and highly accomplished Miss Maria Chamberlin, the daughter of Clayton Chamberlin, deceased, both of Liberty Township, this County."

Note: — This is self-explanatory. Maria (Chamberlin) Zimmerman was a sister of Eleanor (Chamberlin) McLaughlin, who was married in 1810.

12. Wednesday, December 25, 1822 —
"Died, December 15th 1822, at Rockford, near Lancaster, Pennsylvania, Mr. John Chamberlin, formerly of this place (Gettysburg), in the 20th year of his age."

Note: — John Chamberlin could have been a son of either

Police Arrest 30 In Chester Raid

CHESTER, Pa. (AP)—Authorities raided the Tenderloin section of Chester Saturday and arrested 30 persons in what was described as the biggest vice raid here in six years.

Chester police, Delaware County detectives and state police converged on two hotels, three bars and a number of apartments shortly after midnight and made the arrests.

Chester Police Chief Joseph Ball said the raid was made after weeks of undercover work by investigators. Those arrested were held on morals charges, Chief Ball said.

In 1958, a raid by state police netted some 40 persons.

EL CENTRO, Calif. (AP) — Eligio Esquivel Mendez, 56, governor of Mexico's state of Baja California, died in El Centro Thursday of an apparent heart attack.

Clayton or Lewis Chamberlin. One thing is certain, however, he belonged to one of the Chamberlin families of the Lower Marsh Creek.

The notes on the Chamberlin family of this county will be continued in this series next week.
